UNOFFICIALLY UNDERWAY

The title defense of Lubbock Christian University's second NCAA Division II national title season officially gets underway Nov. 8 in Pueblo, Colo., but their exhibition schedule can't be overlooked. The Lady Chaps play a trio of exhibition games against NCAA Division I opponents, beginning Monday in Austin facing Texas and continuing Wednesday in Waco against Baylor before concluding Nov. 4 in Starkville, Miss. facing Mississippi State. Combining the exhibition schedule with the regular season, LCU will play their first five contests on the road before their home fans are able to see them at home Nov. 15.

POWER EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

The Lady Chaps three exhibition games are all against NCAA Division I power-conference programs and all three were nationally ranked in last season's final AP poll, including Baylor, who claimed the Division I national title last season. Their game Wednesday will mark LCU's second-ever game against a defending Division I national champion, as they faced 2014-15 national champion UConn during the 2015-16 exhibition season in Hartford, Conn. Both LCU and UConn went on to claim a national championship in their division in 2015-16. This season marks LCU's first season to play three Division I foes. Last season was LCU's first season to play a pair of Division I opponents, as they played exhibition games at SMU (in Dallas) and New Mexico (in Albuquerque, N.M.).

GLANCING BACK AT LAST SEASON

Success has turned into an expectation for the Lady Chaps, but last season's Division II national title for LCU was not fully expected. The Lady Chaps were opening the season without a returning All-American, as they were without Tess Bruffey, who completed her 2017-2018 season and career as a two-time Heartland Conference Player of the Year. Bobbi Chitsey and Olivia Robertson were LCU's only members off their 2015-16 championship season last year, and the two would be serve as pieces of the puzzle to lead LCU to a 32-5 national championship season. LCU was out of the top-25 for 11 of the in-season D2SIDA polls and eight of the in-season WBCA polls, but was able to win the Heartland Conference regular season title and conference tournament to clinch a berth to the South Central Region Tournament as a No.3 seed. Lubbock Christian garnered a road victory at No.2-seed and No.15-nationally ranked Colorado Mesa (in a sold out Brownson Arena) in the region tournament and topped Angelo State in the region championship inside a sold out Rip Griffin Center to garner a trip to their third Elite Eight Tournament (all in a four-season span). LCU topped No.20 North Georgia, No.1 Drury and No.4 Southwestern Oklahoma State en route to the title in Columbus, Ohio. Their win over SWOSU for the title came in double-overtime (a NCAA Division II first), with returning forward Maddi Chitsey nailing a three-pointer in the closing seconds of overtime to force the second overtime.

WHO RETURNS

Maddi Chitsey (13.8 pts., 5.7 reb.), Caitlyn Cunyus (6.2 pts., 2.9 reb.) and Allie Schulte (10.6 pts., 3.0 reb.) are returning members from last season's squad. They represent three of LCU's top-four leading scorers from last season. Juliana Robertson (4.7 pts. 3.8 reb.) started twice and came off the bench 35 times and "Madi" Madelyn Turner (3.4 pts., 1.0 reb.) made 36 appearances off the bench, as the two were vital depth members last season. Each will see starts this season. LCU was without Cunyus in the exhibition season and Turner served as point guard in those contests against Division I squads, which showed its importance during the season. Ashton Duncan, who hit 16 of her 26 three-pointers in conference play, Laynee Burr (42.9% from three-point range), Channing Cunyus (58.6% shooting from the field) and junior Taylor Stevenson return to add depth at the perimeter. Emma Middleton (averaged 3.2 points in 7.7 minutes per game) joins Chitsey and Robertson as returning inside players.

WHO THEY LOST

Bobbi Chitsey, Olivia Robertson and Kailin Davis will be missed on the LCU roster. Chitsey and Robertson were starters last season and are LCU's only players part of two championship squads. Robertson claimed Most Outstanding Player in last season's championship game. She averaged 14.7 points per game last season, averaging 17.7 per game in the Elite Eight Tournament. She closed out her LCU career with 1,107 points in 124 games played. Robertson finished with the third-best career free-throw shooting percentage (87.3%) in program history. Bobbi (averaged 8.9 points per game last season) finished her LCU career with 892 points and 418 rebounds in 122 games. She posted a career field goal shooting mark of 50.4%, which included 74 three-point field goals. Davis was a "sixth-player" for the Lady Chaps and was one of five players to appear in all 37 games. The Air Force transfer averaged 3.3 points per game last season and spent two seasons with the Lady Chaps.

NEW FACES

There are four new additions, who will dawn a Lady Chaps jersey for a first time this season. The four newbies consist of three freshmen and a sophomore transfer. The first-year Lady Chaps are Courtney Andersen, Whitney Cox, Savannah Sumrall and Brylee Winfrey. Andersen is a sophomore junior college transfer joining the Lady Chaps roster from Eastern Arizona College. She appeared in 30 games (29 starts) and led the team in blocks (34). The guard averaged 6.8

points and 4.5 rebounds per game. Cox comes to LCU from Flower Mound High School. She averaged a team-leading 12.2 points a game last season as a senior, with a team-best 9.5 rebounds a game. Cox spent four seasons with the varsity, including her freshman season as a teammate of sister Lauren, who was a two-time state Gatorade Player of the Year and is at Baylor. Sumrall comes to Lubbock Christian from Wellington High School (Wellington, Texas), where she was a three-time Class 2A All-State selection for the Skyrockets in basketball (TGCA all three years and TABC in 2019) and an All-State selection in Cross Country in 2018 as a senior. The Amarillo Globe named her to the Super Team following her senior season, as she averaged 14 points and five rebounds a game to claim District 2-2A MVP honors and led Wellington to the Region I-2A finals. Winfrey continues a long tradition of recruits making the LCU roster from Canyon, Texas and Canyon High School.

The guard had an enjoyable senior season last year as District 3-4A MVP, additionally claiming All-State honors in basketball and cross country.

NATIONALLY UNKNOWN

At press time, preseason rankings by the Lone Star Conference, WBCA and DSIDA have not been released

FIVE THINGS ABOUT TEXAS

1 > Texas is coming off a 23-10 season last year, which included a 12-6 mark in Big 12 play and 10-6 record inside Frank C Erwin Jr. Special Events Center. UT made an appearance into the NCAA postseason, falling to Indiana in the opening round in Eugene, Ore.

2 > The Big 12 has Texas No.2 in the preseason poll conducted by Big 12 head coaches. The Longhorns received one of 10 first place votes.

3 > This season is not the first season Texas is facing a Lone Star Conference member. Last season, UT hosted and defeated West Texas A&M 91-63 (Oct. 28), which placed Texas with a 6-0 record in exhibitions under head coach Karen Aston (3-0 against LSC squads).

4 > The Longhorn Network will nationally televise Monday's contest. Technically, it marks LCU's third consecutive game nationally televised, as their final two games of the Elite Eight Tournament aired on CBS College Sports Network.

5 > Texas sophomore Charli Collier is on the 20-person Preseason Watch List for the 2020 Lisa Leslie Award (top center in women's NCAA Division I college basketball). As a freshman last season in 31 games, she averaged 5.9 points per game, 4.3 rebounds per game and 0.6 blocks per game. She led the Longhorns in 2018-19 with 20 blocks and scored in double figures on eight occasions.

FIVE THINGS ABOUT BAYLOR

1 > Baylor is coming off their third NCAA Division I national championship season (2005, 2012, 2019), as they topped Notre Dame 82-81 to complete a 37-1 record. They went 18-0 in conference play (Big 12) and 17-0 at home (39 straight home wins).

2 > The Lady Bears are the Big 12 preseason favorites, as voted on by the conference head coach, who provided Baylor with nine of the 10 first place votes.

3 > Like UT, Baylor also played an LSC program last season during the exhibition season. They defeated Texas A&M Commerce 127-61 on Nov.1. The Lady Bears opened up this season's exhibition schedule with a 149-32 win Friday over Langston.

4 > The game not only reunites sisters Lauren (of Baylor) and Whitney (of LCU) Cox, but the sisters will be recognized, as the game serves as Baylor's annual T1D Awareness

Game (Type 1 Diabetes). Lauren was diagnosed at age seven, while Whitney was diagnosed as a Type 1 Diabetic her junior year of high school.

5 > Former Texas Tech Lady Raider Erin DeGrate is a member of the Lady Bears. She posted 17 points and 12 rebounds against Baylor Friday and was one of seven players in double figures in points against Langston.

WEBSITE & BROADCAST PARTNERS

ON THE NET - WWW.LCUCHAPS.COM

The official website of LCU Athletics is where you can find everything relating to the LCU basketball teams. Schedules, results, rosters, bios, statistics and game notes can be found there.

ON THE AIR

LCU is in their fifth season in partnership with Ramar to exclusively carry all non-conflicting basketball contests on radio. The intention is to have all games air live on 100.7FM "The Score", but conflicts may push games to DoubleT 97.3 (KTUU) or Oldies 97.7. Online broadcast links will be provided on LCuchaps.com.

Select home games for LCU are televised on Fox 34 News Now (over-the-air digital channel 34.2, Suddenlink 109) in high definition (HD).

All home games and all Lone Star Conference games are web-streamed (video) online through the Lone Star Conference Digital Network (www.LoneStarConferenceNetwork.com), through a partnership with BlueFrame Technology. LCU's web address with the LSCDN is <https://lonestarconferencenetwork.com/lcu/>. The network will also offer OTT apps which will be available on Apple TV, Amazon Fire TV, Android TV and Roku devices prior to the start of the season by searching for "LSC Digital Network".

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to a remarkable 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No.1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2015-16 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

In 16 seasons at LCU (the 2019-20 season marks his 17th), Gomez enters the 2019-2020 season with a 397-122 collegiate coaching record. He also enters his squad into Lone Star Conference play for the first time. He completed Heartland Conference play with a 118-17 (.874) overall record.

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 29 years, and the couple has two children: Hayden and Landon.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boy's basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She played an integral role in the coaching staff when the Lady Chaps went on to win the NCAA Div. II National Championship in the 2015-16 season. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No.45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No.55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.
