BACK TO DIVISIONAL PLAY

No.2 Lubbock Christian University returns to West Division play in the Lone Star Conference Wednesday with the first game of a divisional home-and-home series against Midwestern State. Wednesday's game tips off in Lubbock (5:30 p.m.) and then the teams will head to Wichita Falls, Texas to complete the week's set Saturday (3:30 p.m.) inside Ligon Coliseum. LCU, the only unbeaten team in the South Central Division, leads the West Division with a 2-0 mark. Midwestern State is 1-1 in the division.

DUST-UP

LCU is coming off a two-game home sweep of Texas A&M International. TAMU rallied back from a 29-point deficit in the first game, falling 71-61 to the Lady Chaps. They expected to have momentum Saturday, but the Lady Chaps forced 29 turnovers and had a 40-6 scoring advantage in points-off-turnovers in an 85-42 LCU win. Ashton Duncan led LCU in the two games, averaging 13.5 points a game and all 32 points tallied came from beyond the arc.

RECOGNIZED

The Lone Star Conference announced their weekly honors and LCU's Juliana Robertson was this week's Defensive Player of the Week recipient in women's basketball.

Robertson led LCU defensively to a pair of wins over Texas A&M International, which ended TAMU's seven-game win streak and extended LCU's home win streak to 83 straight games (71 straight conference wins). The Kerrville, Texas native, who averaged a +24.5-per-game plus/minus, opened the weekend series with 11 rebounds Friday and followed Saturday with a +30 in 22 minutes of action. Her weekly totals included 9.5 points (per game), 7.5 rebounds (per game), six assists, three steals and a block, while shooting 66.7% from the field.

The honor is the second "defensive" weekly honor in Robertson's career and the first of this season.

The senior forward is the third Lady Chaps member to receive weekly honors (first defensive), as she joins Ashton Duncan and Allie Schulte.

The WBCA Top-25 Poll is scheduled to begin this month, but they have not conducted any polls to this point (they did not conduct a preseason poll). This season, LCU looks as if they may keep the trend continuing. They currently rank 11th in blocks (45) and are ninth in blocks per game (5.6), leading the LSC in the per-game category. Emma Middleton (15, third in the conference and 25th nationally), Whitney Cox (12, fourth in the LSC) and Juliana Robertson (8, 10th in the conference) place LCU with three players in the top-10 in the LSC in blocks. secutive wins until LCU winning the prior three meetings. Each school has conflicting all-time records for the history of the two programs, as there were some MSU forfeitures in the mix, which enters into the confusion. LCU is 1-14 all-time in Wichita Falls against MSU, winning 67-54 in their prior visit (Dec. 21, 2019). The Lady Chaps are 6-7 all-time in Lubbock against MSU. They have only met once in Lubbock since 1994 (Dec. 3, 2015, which LCU won 92-71). The two programs have only met four times since Steve Gomez tenure as head coach of the Lady Chaps (he is 3-1 against MSU).

PREVIOUS RECAP VS. MSU

Dec. 21, 2019 (Wichita Falls, Texas) - MSU:49 - LCU:67
It took a medley of career-high performances by the Lady Chaparrals and a 23-6 second-half scoring surge for No.1 LCU to get their first-ever win over Midwestern State in Wichita Falls, as Ashton Duncan and Maddi Chitsey each posted 16 points and Emma Middleton contributed a career-high 15 points to help lead LCU to a 67-49 Lone Star Conference victory. LCU had been 0-14 all-time in Ligon Coliseum against MSU prior to the game.

A 9-2 start to the second half for MSU had the Mustangs up 34-25 with 6:30 left in the third quarter. MSU led 44-38 with 3:15 remaining in the quarter, and that is when LCU began their comeback march. Middleton, who also had a career-high seven rebounds to go with her 15 points, went on a personal 5-0 run over a 28-second span to help LCU close the third quarter on a 7-0 run to take a 45-44 lead into the fourth quarter.

Chitsey made it a 9-0 run with a jumper 1:13 into the fourth quarter. MSU ended the run 22 seconds later with a three-point play by Erin Alexander to tie the contest up at 47-47. Ashton Duncan took over with the first eight points of a 10-0 LCU run and LCU led 57-47 at the halfway point of the fourth quarter. The series of runs combined for a 23-6 scoring advantage by LCU and they led as much as 67-51 before claiming the 67-49 win.

Middleton had all 15 of her points in the second half, with 11 tallied in the third quarter. Duncan scored 11 of her 16 points in the fourth quarter.

It was a struggle for LCU in the opening quarter of play. Chitsey hit LCU's opening field goal attempt, but then the Lady Chaps followed by missing their next nine field goal attempts. A pair of free-throws by Kityana Diaz put the Mustangs up 10-2 with 2:35 left in the quarter. LCU would force MSU into 11 straight field goal misses and trailed 10-6 after the opening quarter. During the span of misses, LCU would go on a 6-0 run and later a 13-0 run highlighted by three-pointers from Chitsey, Ashton Duncan and Caitlyn Cunyus for a 21-16 LCU lead. The Mustangs responded with a 7-0 run and would take a 25-23 halftime lead over the Lady Chaps.

Numerous career marks were set in the contest by LCU. Chitsey, who co-led LCU in scoring, matched a career high in blocks with six, as LCU had 10 as a team. Middleton was 6-of-7 from the field, posting career-high marks in points (15) and rebounds (7). Caitlyn Cunyus fouled out, coming several marks shy of a triple-double. She posted eight points, seven rebounds and a career-high nine assists.

LCU used a 64.3% (9-of-14) shooting mark in the fourth quarter to finish the game 42.6% from the field. They were 21-of-41 (51.2%) inside the arc and outscored MSU 40-24 in scoring in the paint.

The Mustangs (4-4, 2-2) received a double-double in the loss from Elizabeth Cathcart, who had 12 points and 12 rebounds. They received a game-high 19 points from Hannah Reynolds. MSU, who went more than eight minutes in the fourth quarter without a field goal, shot 30.2% from the field (19/63). They were 2-of-14 (14.3%) from long distance.

KEEP IN MIND

The Lone Star Conference announced it will use a point rating system to determine its men's and women's basketball standings this year due to COVID-19 related schedule adjustments.

The point rating system will replace winning percentage for the LSC's basketball conference standings, divisional standings and conference tournament seeding in 2020-21.

The system assigns a numerical value to game results depending on the site and quality of the opponent. Teams will earn more points for a win on the road or at home against top competition based on conference winning percentage and receive fewer points for a win against lesser opposition. Points are also dispersed for losses, with more points awarded for a loss against stronger competition.

Each week, the team ratings will be determined by taking the total points divided by league games played with the opponents winning percentage updated throughout the year.

The LSC has the point system in use for public viewing on the standings page located on the LSC's website.

The change will help offset an unbalanced league schedule and games canceled due to COVID-19. Typically, the LSC slate includes games against all other league teams but this year is using a modified "bubble" schedule format to enhance student-athlete safety with regard to COVID-19 and reduce the amount of contact amongst teams by playing the same opponent twice during the week.

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No. 1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2015-16 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

In 17 seasons at LCU (the 2020-21 season marks his 18th), Gomez enters the 2020-2021 season with a 425-125 collegiate coaching record. The 2020-21 season marks LCU's eighth since leaving the NAIA and LCU is 191-29 in that span (86.8%).

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 30 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boy's basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She played an integral role in the coaching staff when the Lady Chaps went on to win the NCAA Div. II National Championship in the 2015-16 season. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No. 45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No. 55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

LAST TIME OUT: Lady Chaps Complete Dustdevil Sweep Forcing 29 Turnovers

40-6 Scoring Advantage in Points off Turnovers Allows LCU To Smash TAMIU

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- TEXAS A&M INT'L

JAN. 23 - LUBBOCK, TEXAS

RIP GRIFFIN CENTER

42

No.2 Lubbock Christian University forced Texas A&M International into 29 turnovers and had 40 points-off-turnovers to cruise to an 85-42 Lone Star Conference victory Saturday inside Rip Griffin Center. The win not only kept LCU with a perfect 8-0 record, but it also extended the NCAA's longest active home win streak in women's basketball to 83 consecutive wins (71 consecutive conference home wins).

LCU, forcing TAMIU into 23 turnovers Friday, forced the Dustdevils into 29 turnovers Saturday, marking the most LCU has forced since they forced Northern New Mexico into 32 on Nov. 5, 2010. The Lady Chaps took advantage of the 29 miscues, converting them into a 40-6 scoring advantage in points-off-turnovers. Ironically, the last time LCU scored 40 points in points-off-turnovers was against TAMIU on Mar. 7, 2019 at the Heartland Conference Tournament in Tulsa, Okla.

The start of the game showed signs that LCU would be the team struggling with turnovers, after a pair of turnovers on their first two possessions. They had a third turnover nearly three minutes into the game, but LCU would follow the remaining 17 minutes of the half with two turnovers.

The Lady Chaps first four points of the game were from the free-throw line. The offense started to roll once Emma Middleton was fouled for an and-one, which started a 16-0 run, which was also part of a 22-3 LCU run to set up a 26-11 lead after the first quarter. Ashton Duncan connected on a pair of three-pointers during the 16-0 portion of the run, as LCU was 7-of-10 from the field in the quarter (70%) and 4-of-5 (80%) from three-point range.

LCU was 11-of-15 from the field (73.3%) before they missed consecutive shot attempts (6:15 remaining in the second quarter). The Dustdevils were outscored 24-10 in the second quarter and LCU had runs of 11-0 and 13-1 in the quarter before a 50-21 lead. LCU was 14-of-25 (56%) from the field in the half and 6-of-10 from long range.

TAMIU was held to one two-point field goal the entire first half, as five of their six field goals of the half (6-of-20 shooting, 30%) were three-pointers (they were 1-of-11 from inside the arc in the half). Their scoring resources changed in the second half, as TAMIU had six field goals in the second half and all were inside the perimeter (they were 0-of-4 from three-point range in the half).

Friday, TAMIU shot 78.9% from the field in the second half. LCU made sure lightning did not strike twice. A 7-0 run in the third quarter gave LCU a 62-29 lead with 3:44 left in the quarter. The lead never went below a 31-point margin the rest of the way. LCU, surrendering 27 points to the Dustdevils in the fourth quarter Friday, held TAMIU to five points in Saturday's fourth quarter. TAMIU was held without a field goal over the final 5:38 of the game, while LCU ended the game on a 11-1 run.

Maci Maddox scored seven points in the fourth quarter (all her scoring in the game) and was one of 10 Lady Chaps to figure into the scoring of the second half. No member of the Lady Chaps played more than eight minutes in the second half and no player played less than five minutes (14 players played).

Allie Schulte led a foursome of Lady Chaps in double figures. She had a balanced effort with 14 points (5-of-7 shooting), six assists, four rebounds, four steals and a +26 plus/minus. Ashton Duncan and Emma Middleton each had 12 points. Duncan, making her first three three-point attempts, finished 4-of-8 from the field and 4-of-5 from three-point range. Middleton, 3-of-3 from the field, had seven rebounds, two blocks and two steals with a +30 plus/minus rating. Juliana Robertson was also +30 with 11 points (4-of-5 shooting) with two steals and two assists.

LCU was 53.2% (25/47) from the field, going 8-of-16 (50%) from three-point range. They also went 93.1% (27/29) from the free-throw line. Defensively, along with the myriad of forced turnovers, LCU had 15 steals (second highest total of the season).

TAMIU was led by Clara Fernandez, who had 12 points off a 4-of-6 shooting performance. The Dustdevils fell to 8-3 overall and 5-3 in LSC play on the season.

TURNING POINT

TAMIU did not have their first sequence of consecutive field goals until Clara Fernandez and Silvia Blanco hit back-to-back three-pointers for a 6-0 run with 5:48 left in the second quarter. LCU responded with a 13-1 run and kept TAMIU without a field goal for a span over five minutes.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

LCU was 27-of-29 from the free-throw line (93.1%). The 27 made free-throws were the most since they made 34 against Eastern New Mexico on Dec. 30, 2017. Nine different Lady Chaps made a trip to the line, with Audrey Robertson (2/2), Maci Maddox (3/3) and Lara Mason (2/2) attempting their first collegiate free-throw attempts. The trio of freshman combined to go 7-of-7 from the line.
