POSTSEASON PLAY BEGINS

No.1 Lubbock Christian University opens their post-season play in the Lone Star Conference Championship in the Quarterfinals Tuesday as the top seed and hosting No.8-seed St. Mary's with a 5 p.m. tip-off inside Rip Griffin Center. With COVID-19 playing its role, the Lone Star Conference Championships (or conference tournament for simplistic understanding) returns to a campus site for the first time since 2007 (Commerce, Texas), as the eight-team tournament has four quarterfinal contests played on campus sites of the better-seeded team. The top remaining seed after Tuesday's quarterfinals round will host the remainder of the tournament Friday and Saturday. This is LCU's second season to participate in the Lone Star Conference Championships. They won the tournament last season in Frisco, Texas after competing the prior four seasons in the Heartland Conference Tournament in Tulsa, Okla., where they won three tournament titles.

THE "IF'S"

IF LCU WINS: If the Lady Chaps defeat StMU, they will improve to 16-0 on the season and will advance to the Semifinals to host either Cameron or Midwestern State Friday.

IF LCU LOSES: If the Lady Chaps fall to the Rattlers, their record will drop to 16-1, they will be eliminated from the tournament and will await an at-large bid for the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament (six-team tournament in Canyon, Texas). The NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Selection Show will air Sunday, Mar. 7 at 9 p.m. on NCAA.com.

MIDDLE-ENDING

The Lone Star Conference announced Lubbock Christian University's Emma Middleton as the conference's women's basketball Defensive Player of the Week honoree for her play in the final week of regular season play.

Middleton was a big contributor on the defensive end of LCU's regular season sweep of West Texas A&M, which included a 68-42 home win and a 48-45 road win at the No.16 Lady Buffs. Thursday, she posted 12 points and had two blocks, with a game-high +27 plus/minus, in their home win over WT. Saturday, she tied a career high with four blocks, and had LCU's only double-double of this season with 16 points and a career-high 14 rebounds in the program's first-ever win in Canyon, Texas. Emma averaged 14.0 points, 8.5 rebounds and 3.0 blocks on the week.

The honor is Middleton's third LSC Player of the Week honor and second defensive honor this season. Four Lady Chaps members this season have claimed a LSC weekly honor this season, and Middleton is the only Lady Chap with multiple honors. Ashton Duncan (offensive), Allie Schulte (offensive) and Juliana Robertson (defensive) have each received an honor this season, and Middleton is LCU's only recipient to win both the offensive and defensive honor on this season.

NATIONALLY KNOWN

This week potentially marks LCU's fourth week as the "No.1" team in NCAA Division II women's college basketball, as both the WBCA and D2SIDA were to release their weekly Top-25 Polls Tuesday. The WBCA released theirs Monday with Lubbock Christian University remaining as the top team.

Prior to the current four-week stretch, LCU last held the No.1 ranking in January of 2020, coming off the 2019 NCAA Division II national championship season. With no basketball championships held last season due to COVID-19, LCU remains as the reigning national champions. They are 13-0 this season and one of four teams in NCAA Division II that have not suffered a loss, and one of two teams of the four with at least a 10-0 mark (Lander is 15-0).

WHEN AT HOME

LCU went 13-0 last season inside Rip Griffin Center. The Lady Chaps, who host St. Mary's Tuesday, are 10-0 this season at home and with their active home win streak sitting at 88 games, which is the active and all-time leading mark in NCAA Division II women's basketball. LCU's last home loss came on Jan. 1, 2015 against Oklahoma City University. LCU, who also has a 7-0 mark in NCAA postseason play in Lubbock in the mix, has also won 74 consecutive home conference games, with their last conference home loss occurring Jan. 10, 2013 (against Oklahoma City). They completed a 49-0 all-time mark in Heartland Conference home games (they are 21-0 in LSC home games).

BLOCKS ARE BACK

Since their first season as official NCAA Division II members (2015-16), LCU has ranked at least 12th or better in total blocks (led the nation in 15-16 and ranked second in 17-18) in each season of play and have ranked in the top-14 in four of the five seasons in blocks per game (led the nation in 15-16 and 16-17). This season, LCU looks as if they may keep the trend continuing. They ranked in the top-10 until several midseason game postponements. Currently, they rank 14th in blocks (71) and are ninth in blocks per game (5.3), leading the LSC in the per-game category. Emma Middleton (29, second in the conference and 28th nationally), Whitney Cox (13, 10th in the LSC) and Juliana Robertson (11, 13th in the conference) place LCU with three players in the top-13 in the LSC in blocks. Middleton also leads the LSC and 32nd nationally with 1.93 blocks per game.

DISTRIBUTION

With a mark of 1.19, LCU ranks 16th in the nation in assist/turnover ratio. LCU's 15.3 assists per game ranks 42nd in the nation, with team

FIVE THINGS ABOUT StMU

1 > The Rattlers are coming off a 14-14 campaign in 2019-20, finishing 12-10 in the Lone Star Conference and tied atop their division with a 7-3 record. They opened the 2020-21 season in Lubbock (second consecutive season to open in Lubbock, as they opened the 2019-20 season with Southwestern Oklahoma State in a neutral site contest). They went 6-8 during the regular season and finished just ahead of Texas Woman's in the point rating system.

2 > St. Mary's was preseason picked fifth in the LSC Preseason Poll. They went 4-2 in divisional play in the South Division, and finished second in the division, which also contains St. Edward's Texas A&M International, Texas A&M – Kingsville and UT Tyler.

3 > St. Mary's has advanced to the league championship tournament in all 15 seasons of Head Coach Jason Marten's tenure. This is the second-straight Lone Star Conference Tournament appearance and the Rattlers made 13 consecutive Heartland Conference appearances under his guidance.

4 > Senior forward Hannah Wilson has posted a double-double in points and rebounds in each of the last seven games and in eight total games this season. She is the only player in the Lone Star averaging a double-double in 2021, with a mark of 13.9 points and 10.5 rebounds. Wilson, ranking fourth in Rattlers program history with 90 points, is fifth in their program history in career rebounds (864) and needs 16 move into fourth in their program record books.

5 > The Rattlers defense ranks third in the LSC, holding opponents to an average of 61.3 points per game (44th nationally).

THE SERIES AGAINST StMU

LCU leads the all-times series 18-3 over StMU. The Lady Chaps are 15-2 against the Rattlers since the 2013-14 season and are 9-0 inside Rip Griffin Center. LCU has won nine straight meetings following their prior meeting (67-47 win in Lubbock on Dec. 12, 2020), which completed a regular season series sweep. LCU is 2-0 against StMU all-time in conference tournaments, with wins in the 2016 and 2017 Heartland Conference tournaments.

LCU benefited off a strong first-half shooting performance to reach the home victory. LCU trailed 6-2, opening the first four minutes of the game 1-of-4 from the field. Emma Middleton connected on a three-pointer with 5:35 left in the quarter and LCU went on an 8-of-11 shooting stretch from the field. LCU had a 9-0 run and an eventual 6-0 run to close the quarter, as Madelyn Turner and Laynee Burr each hit three-pointers to give LCU a 19-10 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Lady Chaps also had a 9-0 run and an 8-0 run in the second quarter.

LCU shot 61.5% (16/26) in the opening half (8-of-12, 66.7% in the second quarter) and led 40-21 at the half. They received field goals from nine different players, and six different players connected on a three-point field goal in the half, as LCU was 7-of-11 (63.6%) from downtown in the half.

The hot shooting wouldn't return in the second half. Neither team could find their shooting touch in the third quarter. LCU turned the ball over five times and missed their first six shot attempts of the half. The Lady Chaps went a five-minute span without a point, but the best StMU could do was one field goal and a 6-0 run during the LCU lull. Allie Schulte ended the dry spell with a layup as 4:54 remained in the quarter, which began a 9-0 LCU run, LCU closed the quarter on an 11-2 run for a 51-29 lead.

Each team shot 25% from the field in the third quarter. The teams did warm back up in the fourth quarter. Especially St. Mary's, who went 7-of-11 (63.6%) from the field in the quarter (Rattlers connected on three three-pointers in the frame).

Schulte led LCU with a balanced performance. She led the team in scoring (11 points), rebounds (6), assists (5) and steals (5). Her five steals matched a career high. LCU did have 13 different players factor into the scoring and had six players with at least seven points. They finished the game 46.4% (26/56) from the field. LCU had 12 blocks Friday, but only recorded one Saturday.

St. Mary's (0-2, 0-2) received a double-double from Hannah Wilson, who led the LSC in double-doubles last season. She had 13 points and 12 rebounds, serving as the only Rattler in double digits in either category.

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No. 1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2015-16 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

In 17 seasons at LCU (the 2020-21 season marks his 18th), Gomez enters the 2020-2021 season with a 425-125 collegiate coaching record. The 2020-21 season marks LCU's eighth since leaving the NAIA and LCU is 191-29 in that span (86.8%).

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 30 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boys' basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

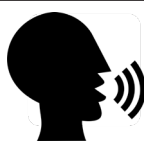

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She played an integral role in the coaching staff when the Lady Chaps went on to win the NCAA Div. II National Championship in the 2015-16 season. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No. 45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No. 55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

LAST TIME OUT: The West Was Won... And LCU Also Snags Second Consecutive LSC Championship*Overcoming Their Largest Deficit of the Season, Behind a Season-Low Offensive Performance, LCU Prevails to Win West Division Title*

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- WEST TEXAS A&M

48

FEB. 27 - CANYON, TEXAS

FIRST UNITED BANK CENTER

No.1 Lubbock Christian University overcame their lowest point total since 2016 with a double-double from Emma Middleton (16 points and 14 rebounds), as the Lady Chaps claimed a West Division title and their second consecutive Lone Star Conference Championship with a 48-45 road win at West Texas A&M Saturday. LCU completed the regular season unbeaten (15-0), and they will head into the LSC Championship (tournament) as the top seed and will host No.8-seed St. Mary's Tuesday at 5 p.m. inside Rip Griffin Center.

LCU had their lowest point total since scoring 47 on Dec. 21, 2016 at St. Mary's, and their lowest point total in a victory since defeating Lenoir-Rhyne 47-39 on Nov. 26, 2016 in Puerto Rico. The Lady Chaps, who had only trailed at the end of any quarter twice this season, trailed at the end of each period Saturday, except for the final quarter, as they outscored WT 13-9 in the fourth quarter.

It looked as if LCU was going to continue where they left off from Thursday's 68-42 home win over the Lady Buffs, opening Saturday's game with a 6-3 lead, but LCU then went a span of 8:29 without a point. WT took advantage of LCU missing 10 consecutive field goal attempts with a 12-0 run for a 15-6 lead, which placed LCU with their largest deficit of the season.

Ashton Duncan hit back-to-back three-pointers for LCU to ignite a 11-2 scoring run to tie the game at 19-19 with 2:47 left in the first half. WT received eight points in the first half by Lexy Hightower and the Lady Buffs led LCU 48-45 at the half. Duncan had eight points to lead LCU, who shot 23.3% (7-of-30) from the field in the half. Middleton had six points and 10 rebounds in the opening half.

The two teams combined for a trio of three-pointers in the opening three minutes of the second half before old-fashioned three-point plays by Allie Schulte and Channing Cunyus led to a 6-0 LCU run to take a 30-27 lead midway through the quarter. Hightower regained the WT lead with the next seven Lady Buffs points and WT took a 36-35 lead into the fourth quarter.

Middleton and Schulte carried the Lady Chaps in the fourth quarter, as Middleton's seven points and Schulte's six points during the quarter combined for all of LCU's points in the final quarter. Following Middleton's first jumper of the quarter (scored 24 seconds into the frame for a 37-36 LCU lead), LCU never trailed until McKauley Gregory's three-pointer for WT put the Lady Buffs up 45-44 with 2:13 left. LCU overcame the deficit and took a three-point advantage by ending the game with a 4-0 run all from the line with successful free-throw attempts from Allie Schulte, who was 7-of-7 from the line. WT missed their last four field goal attempts in the game, with a pair of three-pointers in the final 26 seconds falling unsuccessful.

Each team is known for their sharp shooting, but it was not on display Saturday. LCU, opening the game 3-of-16 from the field, finished the game 30.8% from the field (they were 3-of-20, 15%, from three-point range). WT opened the game 1-of-11 and 3-of-17 from the field before finishing 32.1% from the field. Middleton registered her first career double-double with 16 points and 14 rebounds. Her 14 boards were a career high, and she also matched a career high with four blocks. Schulte added 13 points and four steals.

WT received 20 points from Hightower in the loss, which was their fourth straight loss and placed their record at 14-5. Braylyn Dollar also provided 12 rebounds.

TURNING POINT

With 2:13 remaining, McKauley Gregory hit a long distance shot to put WT up 45-44. It would be their final point of the game, as they missed three field goal attempts down the stretch, with two of the attempts resulting in blocks (Emma Middleton and Ashton Duncan). Duncan also had a steal in mix in the final 2:13. It may seem strange to comprehend, but LCU was able to win a game in which they did not score a field goal in the game's final 3:12 while also facing a deficit to overcome inside the final 3:12.

INSIDE THE NUMBER

LCU's 30.8% shooting from the field was a season low. When was the last time LCU shot 30.8%... Ironically the last time they played at First United Bank Center (Jan. 18, 2020), was the last time they shot 30.8% from the field. LCU shot 16-of-52 from the field in both games.
