FLASHBACK TO 2014

With No.2 Lubbock Christian University hosting Texas A&M International inside Rip Griffin Center for a two-game Lone Star Conference series, there are some lingering flashbacks to the 2013-14 season. In that season, which was LCU's first season playing a NCAA Division II schedule and their first season in the Heartland Conference, LCU (20-0 in conference in 2013-14) and TAMIU (15-5) were the top two teams in the Heartland standings. Fast forward to Friday, LCU heads into the contest 6-0 overall and in conference play, and hosting a Dustdevils squad that is 8-1 overall and 5-1 in conference play. TAMIU is riding a seven-game win streak and they are 3-0 in road play this season.

RING THE BELLE

LCU is coming off a home-and-home series sweep in West Division play over Angelo State. The Lady Chaps won 65-55 last Thursday in San Angelo, Texas, behind 20 points from Allie Schulte, and followed with 13 three-pointers (11 in the first half) to top the Belles 77-46 inside Rip Griffin Center Saturday.

RECOGNIZED

LCU's Allie Schulte was this week's Lone Star Conference Offensive Player of the Week recipient in women's basketball. Schulte had another balanced week, leading LCU to West Division wins over Angelo State, in a home-and-home weekend set. She led LCU offensively, averaging 17.5 points per game on .650 (13/20) shooting from the field, which included 7-of-11 shooting (.636) from three-point range. At Angelo State Thursday, Schulte was 4-of-6 from long range, with three in the second half, to lead LCU with 20 points. The mark was one point off of her career high. The senior guard followed with a team-leading 15 points and a +35 plus/minus in 23 minutes of play Saturday to top the Belles at home. Schulte was 3-of-5 from long range in the win, assisting LCU in knocking down 11 three-pointers in the first half. She also combined for eight rebounds, seven assists and seven steals.

The Nazareth, Texas native is the second Lady Chaps member to receive weekly honors this season, joining Ashton Duncan, who claimed "offensive" honors in the opening week of play.

PREVIOUS RECAP VS. TAMIU

Feb. 20, 2020 (Lubbock, Texas) - TAMIU:36 - LCU:71
No.8 Lubbock Christian University opened the contest on a 17-0 run, with Emma Middleton scoring 10 of her game-high 16 points in the run, and the Lady Chaparrals never looked back in a 71-36 Lone Star Conference victory over Texas A&M International inside Rip Griffin Center.

While TAMIU missed their first six field goal attempts over the game's opening seven minutes, LCU was 8-of-13 from the field (it included a 7-of-9 stretch) and with a 17-0 lead. Maddi Chitsey netted the opening four points before Middleton knocked down four straight inside-buckets for eight straight points. LCU had eight field goals in the 17-0 stretch, with a three-pointer from Ashton Duncan marking the only long-distance field goal of the mix. TAMIU was 1-of-9 from the field in the quarter.

LCU took a 22-7 lead into the second quarter and went into the quarter with offensive momentum. The Lady Chaps, closing the first quarter successful on their final two field goal attempts, made their opening six field goal attempts of the second quarter (combined for eight consecutively made field goals). There were five three-point field goals in the span, with three made by Caitlyn Cunyus. She had a trio in succession, with one followed by Laynee Burr to create a 12-0 run for a 38-12 lead halfway through the second quarter.

The Lady Chaps offense went stagnant the remainder of the second quarter. They did not have a field goal the final 5:01 of the first half. TAMIU closed the half on an 8-0 run to place LCU's halftime lead at 38-20. Despite missing their final five shot attempts of the half, LCU had a 55.2% (16/29) shooting mark in the first half.

Middleton opened the second half with a pair of layups and had the first four points of a 16-0 LCU run. Allie Schulte had seven points during the run, as they had a stretch during the run in which they were 8-of-9 from the field.

LCU went the final 4:09 of the third quarter without a field goal and went a 15-shot stretch in which they were 2-of-15 from the field. The dry spell did not play a factor, as free-throws by Savannah Sumrall placed LCU's lead at the game's largest at 38 (67-29 with 6:04 remaining).

The Lady Chaps were 50.9% (29/57) from the field, marking the fifth time they have finished over 50% shooting over their last six games. Middleton was 8-of-11 from the field in her 16-point performance. She was joined in double figures by Caitlyn Cunyus and Allie Schulte, who each had 12 points. Schulte, posting 10 points in the second half, finished the game with a plus/minus of +42 and was one of three Lady Chaps with at least a +40 in the game (Chitsey and Duncan). Chitsey recorded nine rebounds, with four on the offensive end, helping LCU to nine offensive rebounds (as a team) and an 11-2 scoring advantage in second-chance-scoring (third straight game with at least 10 points in second chance scoring). Duncan posted a career-high with a game-high six assists. LCU's sixth consecutive win places them 22-3 overall on the season and 16-3 in the LSC.

The Dustdevils, held to 25.5% shooting, were led by Clara Fernandez's 10 points. She was 4-of-5 from the field, while the rest of the team was a combined 9-of-46 (19.6%).

KEEP IN MIND

The Lone Star Conference announced it will use a point rating system to determine its men's and women's basketball standings this year due to COVID-19 related schedule adjustments.

The point rating system will replace winning percentage for the LSC's basketball conference standings, divisional standings and conference tournament seeding in 2020-21.

The system assigns a numerical value to game results depending on the site and quality of the opponent. Teams will earn more points for a win on the road or at home against top competition based on conference winning percentage and receive fewer points for a win against lesser opposition. Points are also dispersed for losses, with more points awarded for a loss against stronger competition.

Each week, the team ratings will be determined by taking the total points divided by league games played with the opponents winning percentage updated throughout the year.

The LSC will publish the point rating system rankings in mid-January and post weekly updates for the rest of the season.

The change will help offset an unbalanced league schedule and games canceled due to COVID-19. Typically, the LSC slate includes games against all other league teams but this year is using a modified "bubble" schedule format to enhance student-athlete safety with regard to COVID-19 and reduce the amount of contact amongst teams by playing the same opponent twice during

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No.1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2015-16 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

In 17 seasons at LCU (the 2020-21 season marks his 18th), Gomez enters the 2020-2021 season with a 425-125 collegiate coaching record. The 2020-21 season marks LCU's eighth since leaving the NAIA and LCU is 191-29 in that span (86.8%).

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 30 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boy's basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

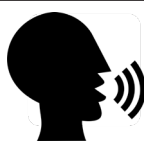

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She played an integral role in the coaching staff when the Lady Chaps went on to win the NCAA Div. II National Championship in the 2015-16 season. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No.45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No.55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

LAST TIME OUT: Dialed In! Lady Chaps Made 11 Three-Pointers In The First Half to Top Belles*Lady Chaps Made Six Three-Pointers On Seven Shot Attempts in Second Quarter*

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- ANGELO STATE

JAN. 16 - LUBBOCK, TEXAS

RIP GRIFFIN CENTER

No.3 Lubbock Christian University connected on 11 three-pointers in the opening half and used a 17-0 run in the first quarter to dash past Angelo State 77-46 for a Lone Star Conference West Division victory inside Rip Griffin Center, where LCU's home win streak was extended to 81 consecutive wins (leads all of NCAA women's basketball for active home win streaks).

LCU, playing in their first home game since December 12, 2020, took advantage of lost time entertaining a COVID-19 50%-capacity sellout crowd with hot shooting to start the game. Their first shot attempt did not fall, but after a Sadie Misner three-pointer provided a 3-0 lead for the Belles, LCU made five straight field goals, with Allie Schulte and Ashton Duncan connecting 26 seconds apart.

The sequence of made field goals led to a 17-0 LCU run, capped by Duncan's second three-pointer of the run. Duncan would connect on three three-pointers in the quarter, as LCU hit five in the quarter and led 25-10 at the end of the quarter.

The mark was topped in the second quarter. LCU made five consecutive field goal attempts and all five were from long distance. Schulte and Savannah Sumrall each had a pair, and Audrey Robertson also connected during the stretch. The first four came during a 12-0 run to put LCU's lead at 39-13 with 5:45 left in the half.

LCU made eight field goals in the quarter, and six consecutive made field goals were three-pointers. They finished with 11 in the half on 18 attempts for a 61.1% mark. Duncan was 4-of-5 and Schulte was 3-of-4 in the half, as LCU had a 47-22 halftime lead.

The Lady Chaps opted for close-range shot attempts in the second half, only firing away on three outside attempts in the quarter. As LCU gradually worked their bench into the contest, LCU would receive points from seven different players in the quarter, with eight points coming off the bench.

The bench had a late spark in the third quarter, which drifted into the fourth quarter, as LCU went a seven-minute stretch in which they were 7-of-10 from the field. The sequence would contain all three of LCU's three-pointers of the second half (all from three different players). Sumrall had one of the three-pointers, and it provided LCU their largest lead of the game (68-30 with 8:46 left in the fourth quarter).

LCU would not fare well down the stretch, making two of their final nine shot attempts of the game. The Lady Chaps did not score in the game's final 3:50, but the best the Belles could do was receive a Madeline Stephens three-pointer in the closing span.

ASU would hit four three-pointers in the quarter. They finished with 18 field goals, with seven coming from long range. Stephens led ASU with 17 points, and Sawyer Lloyd added 13.

The Lady Chaps had an abnormal stat line in shooting. They shot 46.7% (28/60) from the field, but 56% (14/25) from beyond the arc. That placed LCU's shooting percentage at 40% (14/35) for inside the perimeter. LCU finished with six players connecting with at least one three-pointer (four had at least two). Duncan (4-of-5), Sumrall (3-of-4) and Schulte (3-of-5) combined to go 10-of-14 (71.4%) from outside. LCU's 14 three-pointers I their second highest total of the season (15 on Dec. 11 vs. St. Mary's).

Schulte, who was +35 (plus/minus) in 23 minutes played, led LCU with 15 points. Duncan was LCU's only other player in double figures, finishing with 14 points.

LCU was unable to extend their streak of consecutive games with at least 10 steals (ended at five games), but they did force ASU into 20 turnovers (LCU had 10). The turnovers forced led to LCU outscoring ASU 22-8 in points off turnovers.

The win gives LCU their 11th consecutive win over Angelo State in the all-time series and it sweeps their divisional home-and-home series scheduled this season. ASU fell to 0-2 overall and 0-2 in conference and divisional play, while LCU improves to 6-0 overall and in conference, and 2-0 in division play.

TURNING POINT

In the second quarter, LCU went on an 18-4 run, with all 18 points scored from three-point range. It was completed in a span of 3:45 on seven attempts, with the score sitting at 45-17 once the final three-pointer of the series (from Ashton Duncan) popped the nylon.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

With the 14 three-pointers Saturday, LCU has 70 three-pointers in their six games played (11.7 average per game). They have had at least 10 three-pointers in four of their six games played. In Steve Gomez's career coaching the Lady Chaps (this is the 18th season), only one other season (2017-18) has LCU ever had at least 10 three-pointers in four of their first six games. Even during that 2017-18 season, LCU had 52 three-pointers through their first six games.
