GO WEST

If nothing changes, it will be West Division play for the remainder of the regular season for No.1 Lubbock Christian University, who is scheduled for a home-and-home Lone Star Conference West Division series this week with UT Permian Basin and next week with West Texas A&M. Their series with UTPB opens Friday in Odessa, Texas (3 p.m.) and continues Sunday at 2 p.m. inside Rip Griffin Center. Friday's game will mark LCU's first road game since Jan. 14, as their last four schedule road games were canceled.

BACK ON THE HORSE

LCU is coming off a two-game series sweep of Western New Mexico last week inside Rip Griffin Center, which included an 80-23 win on Thursday and a 75-39 win Friday. The games were LCU's first games since Jan. 27. The Lady Chaps defense held WNMU to shoot 24.5% from the field and average 31.0 points per game. Emma Middleton led LCU with 19.0 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. The two games stand as LCU's only non-conference games, as WNMU's games are not counting towards conference standings.

STUCK IN THE MIDDLE

Lubbock Christian University's Emma Middleton swept the Lone Star Conference women's basketball weekly honors, claiming Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week honors.

Emma Middleton was solid on both ends of the floor in last week's sweep of Western New Mexico. In LCU's Thursday night win over WNMU, LCU held WNMU to 17% shooting and Middleton led LCU with 16 points, nine rebounds and four assists in 18 minutes of play (produced a +39 plus minus). The senior forward from Lubbock, Texas followed with a game-high 22 points, +23 plus/minus and co-lead the team in rebounds (6) Friday in another victory over the Mustangs. In the Friday win, LCU trailed after the first quarter (first time this season LCU trailed after the completion of any quarter) and Middleton exploded for 12 points in the second quarter, going 5-of-7 from the field and had five of LCU's six field goals in the quarter. Middleton combined for a +62 plus/minus on the week, along with 19.0 points and 7.5 rebounds in 24.0 minutes per game. She was 12-of-22 (54.5%) from inside the arc in the two games.

NATIONALLY KNOWN

This week marks LCU's second week as the "No.1" team in NCAA Division II women's college basketball, as both the WBCA and D2SIDA each released their weekly Top-25 Polls Tuesday with Lubbock Christian University remaining as the top team.

LCU last held the No.1 ranking in January of 2020, coming off the 2019 NCAA Division II national championship season. With no basketball championships held last season due to Covid-19, LCU remains as the reigning national champions. They are 11-0 this season and one of five teams in NCAA Division II that have an 10-0 record or better. Charleston (WV) and Lander are each 12-0.

BLOCKS ARE BACK

Since their first season as official NCAA Division II members (2015-16), LCU has ranked at least 12th or better in total blocks (led the nation in 15-16 and ranked second in 17-18) in each season of play and have ranked in the top-14 in four of the five seasons in blocks per game (led the nation in 15-16 and 16-17). This season, LCU looks as if they may keep the trend continuing. They ranked in the top-10 until several game postponements have them currently ranking 24th in blocks (59) and are eighth in blocks per game (5.4), leading the LSC in the per-game category. Emma Middleton (20, third in the conference and 39th nationally), Whitney Cox (13, fifth in the LSC) and Juliana Robertson (10, 12th in the conference) place LCU with three players in the top-12 in the LSC in blocks. Middleton also leads the LSC and 32nd nationally with 1.82 blocks per game.

DISTRIBUTION

With a mark of 1.41, LCU ranks sixth in the nation in assist/turnover ratio. LCU's 16.8 assists per game ranks 19th in the nation, with team leader Allie Schulte averaging 3.64 per game to lead the conference and rank fourth nationally. Juliana Robertson (2.9) and Madelyn Turner (2.5) are also averaging over 2.0 assists per game. LCU ranks ninth nationally in turnovers per game (leads the LSC) with a mark of 11.9 per game (they rank 10th in turnovers forced and fourth in turnover margin). Last week against WNMU, LCU combined for 14 turnovers, with less than 10 turnovers in consecutive games for the first time since a pair of games in March of 2019 (against St. Edward's and Newman).

LAST LINE OF DEFENSE

Along with ranking 13th nationally in steals per game, LCU's defense is holding opponents to 44.8 points per game (leads the nation). From the floor, opponents are shooting 32.2% (eighth nationally).

UNBLEMISHED

LCU is the only program in the South Central Region without a loss and they are one of eight programs nationally in Division II that are active and have not lost.

CHARITY STRIPE

The Lady Chaps have not missed more than four free-throws in a game this season, and they are 109-of-129 (84.5%) at home this season from the line. On the season, LCU ranks second nationally, shooting 83.3% from the free-throw line. Emma Middleton leads LCU at the charity stripe with an 88.9% free-throw shooting percentage (32/36), which also leads the LSC and ranks 21st nationally.

PREVIOUS RECAP VS. UTPB
Feb. 27, 2020 (Odessa, Texas) - UTPB:44 - LCU:75

No.6 Lubbock Christian University shot 50.9% from the field, leading to a 75-44 Lone Star Conference divisional road victory over Texas-Permian Basin, who was held to a 25.4% shooting performance.

UTPB, 17-of-67 from the field in the game, was able to get to 25.4% shooting due to a 40% (8-of-20) shooting performance in the fourth quarter. Prior to the fourth quarter, UTPB was 9-of-47 (19.1%) from the field. They opened the fourth quarter missing their first seven shots and were sitting at 16.7% (9-of-54) in the game, before they found a pulse and closed the game making eight of their final 13 shot attempts.

The 8-of-13 ending for the Falcons was off the heels of missing 16 consecutive shot attempts. The misses covered an 11-minute scoreless span. LCU closed the third quarter with a 12-0 run and opened the fourth quarter with a 12-0 run to combine for a 24-0 run during the Falcons scoring drought. The run turned a 41-24 LCU lead into a 65-24 advantage, as LCU was already in cruise control.

The Lady Chaps were balanced, shooting at least 46.7% in all four quarters, including a 53.8% (14-of-26) shooting performance in the opening half. UTPB opened the game without a field goal for nearly the opening four minutes, but LCU could only get a 4-0 advantage to start the game during the Falcon early offensive struggles. Following a Rory Carter three pointer to cut LCU's lead to 4-3, the Lady Chaps responded with an Allie Schulte three-pointer to start a 5-0 run and LCU led 9-3. Madelyn Turner would also hit a three-pointer in the quarter and scored the last five LCU points in the quarter to give the Lady Chaps an 18-10 advantage heading into the second quarter.

LCU's offense opened the second quarter with a trio of three-pointers. Ashton Duncan, who matched a career-high with 10 three-point attempts, nailed a pair and Caitlyn Cunyus followed with one 3:30 into the quarter for a 27-16 LCU lead. Maddi Chitsey had eight points in the half, with seven tallied in the second quarter to help LCU take a 39-22 lead into the locker room. Turner led LCU at the break with nine points.

UTPB had a 7-4 scoring advantage in points-off-turnovers and 7-3 advantage in second-chance-scoring to keep the game within reach at the half, but then the 24-0 run helped LCU extend the lead beyond reach. Juliana Robertson had six points during the run for the Lady Chaps, and LCU's defense held UTPB to two points the entire third quarter (LCU outscored UTPB 14-2 in the third quarter).

LCU received offensive production from 12 of their 13 players that participated in the game. Chitsey, Duncan and Turner each finished the game with 11 points to co-lead LCU's offense. LCU had seven players finish with at least a +18 plus/minus, with Chitsey finishing with a +30 to lead LCU. Even players with less than 10 points had balanced production. Robertson was 4-of-5 from the field for eight points and also provided a team-leading six rebounds in less than 13 minutes on the floor. Schulte had six assists and four steals to go along with nine points. LCU ended up out-scoring UTPB 17-12 in points-off-turnovers in the game after having a 12-5 advantage in turnovers in the second half.

UTPB did out-rebound LCU after garnering 20 offensive boards in the game. Alexus Quaadman posted a double-double with 12 rebounds and 10 points. She was UTPB's lone player with at least 10 points. UTPB fell to 10-17 overall, 6-14 in conference and 3-6 in division play.

KEEP IN MIND

The Lone Star Conference announced it will use a point rating system to determine its men's and women's basketball standings this year due to COVID-19 related schedule adjustments.

The point rating system will replace winning percentage for the LSC's basketball conference standings, divisional standings and conference tournament seeding in 2020-21.

The system assigns a numerical value to game results depending on the site and quality of the opponent. Teams will earn more points for a win on the road or at home against top competition based on conference winning percentage and receive fewer points for a win against lesser opposition. Points are also dispersed for losses, with more points awarded for a loss against stronger competition.

Each week, the team ratings will be determined by taking the total points divided by league games played with the opponents winning percentage updated throughout the year.

The LSC has the point system in use for public viewing on the standings page located on the LSC's website.

The change will help offset an unbalanced league schedule and games canceled due to COVID-19. Typically, the LSC slate includes games against all other league teams but this year is using a modified "bubble" schedule format to enhance student-athlete safety with regard to COVID-19 and reduce the amount of contact amongst teams by playing the same opponent twice during the week.

The conference tournament will consist of the top eight men's and women's teams with first-round games on-campus on Tuesday, March 2 followed by the four winning teams advancing to the final site at the highest remaining seed on Friday, March 5 and Saturday, March 6.

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No. 1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2015-16 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

In 17 seasons at LCU (the 2020-21 season marks his 18th), Gomez enters the 2020-2021 season with a 425-125 collegiate coaching record. The 2020-21 season marks LCU's eighth since leaving the NAIA and LCU is 191-29 in that span (86.8%).

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 30 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boys' basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She played an integral role in the coaching staff when the Lady Chaps went on to win the NCAA Div. II National Championship in the 2015-16 season. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No. 45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No. 55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

LAST TIME OUT: Middleton Tames Mustangs Again, as Home Win Streak Hits Another Mark

LCU Becomes Second Team Ever to Win 86 Consecutive Home Games in Division II Women's Basketball

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- WESTERN N.M.

FEB. 12 - LUBBOCK, TEXAS
RIP GRIFFIN CENTER

39

No.1 Lubbock Christian University shot 56.7% from the field in the second half and received 22 points from Emma Middleton to top Western New Mexico 75-39, completing a two-game non-conference sweep of the Mustangs. LCU became the second women's basketball program in NCAA Division II history to achieve 86 consecutive home victories, and another win inside Rip Griffin Center would tie the NCAA Division II women's basketball record.

LCU, who opened Thursday's game against WNMU with a 17-0 run, was unable to have the fast start as they had during their prior outing. The Lady Chaps opened the game 3-of-10 from the field, and they found themselves trailing 9-3 after Abi Walter hit a pair of field goals for a 5-0 WNMU run. Juliana Robertson (9) and Middleton (4) accounted for all the scoring in the opening quarter, as LCU trailed 15-13 after the opening quarter.

The Lady Chaps found their offensive stride in the second quarter. LCU built off a late three-pointer from Middleton at the close of the first quarter and opened the second quarter with the first 13 points for a 16-0 run. Middleton had 11 of the 16 points during the run. WNMU was held to two field goals in the quarter and LCU took a 30-20 lead into the halftime.

Three WNMU three-pointers in the third quarter helped prevent the quarter from being more lopsided as it was, as LCU scored 24 points in the quarter. LCU was 8-of-14 from the field in the quarter (57.1%), going 7-of-9 (77.8%) inside the arc. Ashton Duncan (7) and Allie Schulte (6) combined for 13 points during the quarter and LCU took a 54-35 lead into the fourth quarter.

LCU outscored WNMU 21-4 in the fourth quarter. They had an 8-0 run in the quarter and ended the game on a 9-0 run, with seven points scored by Lara Mason in a two-minute span. WNMU ended the game making two of their last 17 field goal attempts.

WNMU (1-3) finished the game 33.3% from the field. Olivia Lee led the Mustangs, finishing the game with seven points and 11 rebounds. They were plagued by 29 turnovers, as LCU outscored WNMU 34-5 in points-off-turnovers.

Middleton led LCU with 22 points and was one of four Lady Chaps to finish in double figures. Robertson and Schulte each had 12 points and Duncan finished with 10 points. LCU was 47.5% from the field and 62.5% (25/40) inside the arc. The Lady Chaps posted 48 points from the paint, which was a season high and the most since registering 48 points in the paint on Mar. 26, 2019 against North Georgia at the Elite Eight Tournament.

LCU missed more than three free-throw attempts in a game for the first time this season, but still shot 80% from the line (16/20). They outscored WNMU 16-2 from the line.

TURNING POINT

WNMU missed their first seven shot attempts of the second quarter, while Middleton exploded for 12 points in the quarter. Middleton was 5-of-7 from the field and had five of LCU's six field goals in the quarter.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

As the horn sounded at the close of the first quarter and LCU trailed 15-13, it marked the first time this season LCU has trailed at the close of any quarter this season, ending a sequence of 40 consecutive quarters in which they never trailed at the quarter's completion.
