RIVALRY ON THE RANGE TIME

The 2020-21 regular season hits a climax to close out the regular season, as No.1 Lubbock Christian University closes the regular season with a home-and-home Lone Star Conference West Division series with No.16 West Texas A&M. The Rivalry on the Range series opens in Lubbock Thursday (5:30 p.m.) and then moves to Canyon, Texas Saturday (2 p.m.) for the regular season finale. Despite LCU's 13-0 overall record, 11-0 conference record and 5-0 division record, and WT's 14-3 overall record, 13-3 conference record and 5-1 mark in division play, the conference regular season title and divisional title is based on the LSC's point rating system. LCU is ranked first in the point system in the overall standings and second in the division point system (through Feb. 21). WT sits in fifth in overall point system standings and third in the division point system standings.

FALCON CREST

LCU is coming off a two-game series sweep of UT Permian Basin, winning 74-43 Friday in Odessa, Texas and 72-48 in Lubbock Sunday. Ashton Duncan averaged 18 points in the two games. On Friday in Odessa, Duncan's first points of the game put LCU on the scoreboard and ignited a 13-3 LCU run. Eleven (11) of the points in the run were from Duncan, who connected on three consecutive three-point attempts. She ended up with 18 in the half and finished with 25 in the game (one point from matching a career high), featuring a 6-of-8 outside shooting performance in the game (she was 5-of-6 from three-point range in the opening half). Sunday, LCU had trouble breaking away from UTPB until Duncan's three-pointer to open the second half scoring opened a 7-0 run. She finished with 11 points in the game, as she was part of a Senior Day performance in which 80% of LCU's 45 points in the second half were from the senior class. Combined for a 7-of-15 (46.7%) outside shooting performance on the week, while also swiping five steals. Emma Middleton also had a productive series leaning towards the defensive end. Friday, Middleton had six rebounds, three steals and 13 points, and then she followed with a 4-of-6 shooting performance in the lane en route to a 14-point Senior Day performance Sunday. She also had six rebounds and three steals in the home win as well. Middleton completed the weekend with a +41 plus/minus, which included a +28 in the road win.

TOURNAMENT TALK

The Lone Star Conference Championships will have a different look than the standard tournaments of the past. Instead of qualifying teams meeting for a single elimination tournament in Frisco, Texas, eight qualifying teams (based on point system and meeting minimum games played standards) will have a single elimination format beginning with Quarterfinals on the campus sites of the top four seeds. If LCU qualifies as one of the top four seeds, they will host Tuesday evening. Along those lines, if both LCU's men's and women's basketball teams are hosting Tuesday, the women will play at 5 p.m. and the men will play at 7:30 p.m. If only one of the programs are hosting, the game will start at 7 p.m. Tickets (if hosting) go on sale Monday at 8 a.m. (online only at <http://www.lcuchaps.com/tickets>) and the Rip Griffin Center will be at 50% capacity limits for LSC Championship contests. Chap Pass season pass holders will have to purchase tickets in advance, as passes will not be allowed. Tickets will cost $7.

STEALING THE SHOW

LCU enters the week ranked 12th in steals per game (12.0). The Lady Chaps have had at least 10 steals in 11 of their 13 games. Allie Schulte leads the team in steals (38) and averages 2.9 per game to lead the LSC (16th nationally).

They average 10.3 three-pointers per game on the road and 8.1 at home. The Lady Chaps success rate of 38.1% shooting from outside is 13th nationally. NATIONALLY KNOWN

This week marks LCU's third week as the "No.1" team in NCAA Division II women's college basketball, as both the WBCA and D2SIDA each released their weekly Top-25 Polls Tuesday with Lubbock Christian University remaining as the top team.

Prior to the current three-week stretch, LCU last held the No.1 ranking in January of 2020, coming off the 2019 NCAA Division II national championship season. With no basketball championships held last season due to Covid-19, LCU remains as the reigning national champions. They are 13-0 this season and one of four teams in NCAA Division II that have not suffered a loss, and one of two teams of the four with at least a 10-0 mark (Lander is 15-0).

WHEN AT HOME

LCU went 13-0 last season inside Rip Griffin Center. The Lady Chaps, who will host West Texas A&M Thursday, are 9-0 this season at home and with their active home win streak sitting at 87 games, which matches the record of 87 consecutive home victories by Nebraska-Kearney, who completed the task from Jan. 31, 1995 - Nov. 24, 2001. LCU's last home loss came on Jan. 1, 2015 against Oklahoma City University. LCU, who also has a 7-0 mark in NCAA postseason play in Lubbock in the mix, has also won 73 consecutive home conference games, with their last conference home loss occurring Jan. 10, 2013 (against Oklahoma City). They completed a 49-0 all-time mark in Heartland Conference home games (they are 20-0 in LSC home games).

PREVIOUS RECAP VS. WT

Mar. 7, 2020 (Frisco, Texas) - WT:46 - LCU:59

No.6 Lubbock Christian University (No.3-seed) utilized their guard play to maintain a double figure lead and helped the Lady Chaparrals to a 59-46 Semifinals victory over No.17 West Texas A&M inside Comerica Center.

LCU's defensive presence was felt early, as West Texas A&M missed their first seven field goal attempts (the first four attempts were from three-point range). Maddi Chitsey had a pair of early field goals to help LCU take a 9-3 lead with 5:47 remaining in the opening half. LCU held WT to two field goals in the game's opening 6:46 and led 13-5. The Lady Buffs offense finally found a rhythm in the final three minutes of the first quarter and went on a 7-3 run to cut LCU's lead to 16-12 at the close of the quarter.

The 7-3 run turned into an eventual 12-3 run and WT took a 17-16 lead 90 seconds into the second quarter. Allie Schulte responded less than 30 seconds later with a three-pointer to recapture the lead for LCU. Her three-pointer was followed by a trey from Caitlyn Cunyus and pair of free throws from Laynee Burr to complete an 8-0 run (LCU's largest run of the game). Cunyus (nine points) and Schulte (eight points) combined for 17 points in the opening half, as LCU had a 32-24 halftime lead.

The Lady Chaps opened the second half on a 13-3 run, fueled by a pair of three-pointers from Ashton Duncan. Schulte connected on a three-pointer to cap the run and put LCU up 45-27 for their largest lead of the game (6:41 remaining in the third quarter).

LCU's offensive went stagnant for a four-minute span in which they did not score a point. WT did not fully take advantage of the dry spell. They were 5-of-10 from the free-throw line and had two field goals during a 10-2 run, which sent the game into the fourth quarter with LCU up 47-37. Schulte hit another momentum-halting three-pointer, and this was one was the opening bucket of the fourth quarter. LCU opened the quarter on a 7-3 run and never let their lead dip into single digits. The Lady Chaps defense held WT to a 28.6% (4/14) shooting mark in the final quarter and LCU held their lead.

Schulte (14 points), Cunyus (13 points), Duncan (nine points) and Burr (nine points) were LCU's leading scorers and all are guards. LCU's inside success was measured in rebounds, with Emma Middleton collecting a game-high nine rebounds. The Lady Chaps had to overcome a 15-9 disadvantage in fouls, but WT did not take benefit off the free-throw line in the game (8/14, 57.1%). Meanwhile, LCU was 9-of-10 (90%) from the line in the game.

WT, forced into 17 turnovers, shot 32.7% (16/49) from the field. Delaney Nix hit four three-pointers and led WT with 14 points. Abby Spurgin also poured in 12 points. The Lady Buffs fell to 27-6 on the season.

KEEP IN MIND

The Lone Star Conference announced it will use a point rating system to determine its men's and women's basketball standings this year due to COVID-19 related schedule adjustments.

The point rating system will replace winning percentage for the LSC's basketball conference standings, divisional standings and conference tournament seeding in 2020-21.

The system assigns a numerical value to game results depending on the site and quality of the opponent. Teams will earn more points for a win on the road or at home against top competition based on conference winning percentage and receive fewer points for a win against lesser opposition. Points are also dispersed for losses, with more points awarded for a loss against stronger competition.

Each week, the team ratings will be determined by taking the total points divided by league games played with the opponents winning percentage updated throughout the year.

The LSC has the point system in use for public viewing on the standings page located on the LSC's website.

The change will help offset an unbalanced league schedule and games canceled due to COVID-19. Typically, the LSC slate includes

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No. 1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2015-16 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

In 17 seasons at LCU (the 2020-21 season marks his 18th), Gomez enters the 2020-2021 season with a 425-125 collegiate coaching record. The 2020-21 season marks LCU's eighth since leaving the NAIA and LCU is 191-29 in that span (86.8%).

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 30 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boy's basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She played an integral role in the coaching staff when the Lady Chaps went on to win the NCAA Div. II National Championship in the 2015-16 season. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No. 45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No. 55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

LAST TIME OUT: Seniors Leads LCU a Step Closer to NCAA Division II Seniority in the Record Books

Four of LCU's Five Seniors Post Double Figures, as LCU Matches NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Record For Consecutive Home Wins

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- UT PERMIAN BASIN

FEB. 25 - LUBBOCK, TEXAS
RIP GRIFFIN CENTER

No.1 Lubbock Christian University had four players in double figures and all four were seniors, making it a special Senior Day inside Rip Griffin Center, as Allie Schulte had 16 points to lead the Lady Chaparrals to a 72-48 Lone Star Conference West Division victory over UT Permian Basin Sunday. The win was even more special as LCU matched a NCAA Division II women's basketball record with their 87th consecutive home victory inside Rip Griffin Center.

The Lady Chaps, who last tasted a home defeat on January 1, 2015, matched the NCAA Division II women's basketball mark completed by Nebraska-Kearney (Jan. 31, 1995-Nov. 24, 2001). The current streak includes a 7-0 record in NCAA postseason games, and Sunday's win extended their home win streak in conference games to 73 straight games (20-0 for Lone Star Conference home matches).

LCU and UTPB both had sluggish starts to Sunday's contest. The Lady Chaps opened the game 3-of-13 from the field, while UTPB was 1-of-15 off the opening tip. An 18-7 UTPB rebound advantage in the first quarter led to seven more field goal attempts in the quarter and the Falcons used it to their advantage, taking an 8-7 lead at the close of the opening quarter.

Despite a six-minute stretch in the first quarter without a field goal, LCU never faced anything bigger than a three-point deficit. Schulte, held scoreless in the first quarter, helped rally back the Lady Chaps. She scored LCU's first points of the second quarter, and after LCU trailed 12-9, the Lady Chaps went on a 12-0 run, with Schulte scoring four of the points. She had eight points in the quarter and helped LCU take a 27-20 halftime lead.

LCU closed the half on a 4-0 run and opened the second half on a 7-0 run to combine for an 11-0 run and a 38-20 lead. The Lady Chaps were 0-of-8 from three-point range in the first half, and Ashton Duncan started the 7-0 portion of the 11-0 run with a three-pointer. LCU shot 64.3% from the field in the third quarter and took a 53-37 lead into the final frame.

UTPB was held to three field goals in the final quarter. They went a span of 4:12 without a field goal and went the final 3:57 of the game without a field goal. LCU, using an 11-2 run in the quarter, received 13 of their 19 points in the quarter from seniors.

The Lady Chaps shot 58.1% (18/31) from the field in the second half, going 15-of-21 (71.4%) inside the arc. Seniors Duncan, Emma Middleton, Juliana Robertson, Madelyn Turner and Schulte combined for 36 points in the second half and accounted for 80% of LCU's 45 points in the second half.

Along with Schulte's 16 points (she also led LCU with seven rebounds and posted three blocks), LCU received 14 points from Middleton, 13 from Turner and 11 from Duncan. LCU, shooting 49% (25/51) in the game, finished the contest with a 42-14 scoring advantage in points in the paint.

UTPB (5-11 overall, 4-11 in conference and 0-4 in the West Division) was led by 14 points from Alexis Potham. The Falcons, who shot 23% (14/61) from the field, shot 90% (18/20) from the free-throw line.

TURNING POINT

Duncan's three-pointer to open the second half scoring was part of an 11-0 run and came during a stretch in which LCU made seven consecutive field goal attempts. The seven straight field goal attempts turned a 25-20 lead into a 42-22 advantage for the Lady Chaps. The seven straight makes came during a span in which LCU was 17-of-26 (65.4%) from the field.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

The two teams combined for 47 turnovers and 47 personal fouls, which were both season highs. The 47 combined fouls (26 against UTPB) matched last season's high from Nov. 16, 2019 against Southwestern Oklahoma State. LCU's 21 turnovers were the most since they had 29 against Drury in the Elite Eight (Mar. 27, 2019), which is also the last game featuring at least 47 combined turnovers.
