GETTING CLOSER TO HOME

No.1 Lubbock Christian, with already three games under their belt (3-0), gets a step closer to home this week, as they play a pair of games in Lakewood, Colo. LCU is attending the RMAC/LSC Tip Off Classic at Colorado Christian, where they will face Colorado Christian Friday (2:30 p.m. CT) and Colorado State Pueblo (Noon CT). Metro State was typically in the rotation of teams involved with the season opening classic, but they opted out of the rotation and taking their place is Colorado Christian, as LCU, CSU Pueblo and Texas A&M-Commerce continue to fill the field of teams. This is the season opening event for all teams other than LCU, as LCU participated in the DII CCA Tip Off Classic at the Trailhead in Billings, Mont. this past weekend.

AT THE TRAILHEAD

The defending NCAA Division II Women's Basketball National Champions opened their 2021-22 campaign in Billings, Montana, taking part in the D2CCA Tip Off Classic at the Trailhead for a trio of games. LCU opened their season last Friday with a 69-55 victory over Montevallo before topping tournament host Montana State Billings 67-61 Saturday and No.11 Tampa 56-44 Sunday. The classic/ tournament was the first of four LCU will participate in during the regular season. LCU opens play with their first five games on the road. Next week, LCU heads home for their first home game on Nov. 19, as LCU hosts the Lady Chap Invitational.

HAY HAY HAYS

With Lubbock Christian playing at Colorado Christian this weekend, there is a coaching bond between the two universities. CCU's softball head coach is Larry Hays. Yes, the same Larry Hays that collected over 1,500 coaching wins in baseball at LCU and Texas Tech. Hays, one of the great ambassadors of LCU, served as head coach of the Lady Chaps basketball program during the 1982-83 season, coaching 17 games and going 8-9 while filling the coaching gap between David Simpson and Dave Carter.

NATIONALLY KNOWN

For the first time in program history, LCU claimed the No.1 spot in the WBCA's National Top-25 Preseason Poll, and for the first time they were the favorites in both the WBCA and D2SIDA preseason polls.

LCU received the No.1 ranking receiving 20 of the 22 first-place votes available in the WBCA poll. The WBCA NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Preseason Poll, which the WBCA did not produce last season (COVID) is a poll LCU has consistently debut in each season a poll has been conducted since being eligible. Their No.1 ranking marks LCU's third consecutive preseason poll as a top-10 preseason favorite (they were preseason picked No.2 in 2019-20 and No.10 for the 2018-19 season). Along with their consecutive top-10 debuts, LCU has claimed No.11 (2016-17) and No.18 (2015-16) in their prior appearances in the poll.

LCU has found their way into the D2SIDA preseason poll seven consecutive seasons, marking every season they have been eligible to appear (due to the transfer from NAIA to NCAA Div. II), ranking No.1 (2019-20, 2020-21), No.3 (2018-19), No.23 (2017-18), No. 4 (2016-17), No.15 (2015-16) and receiving votes in 2014-15. The Lady Chaps received all 16 first-place votes.

EYE-OPENING

The 2021-22 season marks LCU's ninth since leaving the NAIA, and heading into this week's action, LCU is 217-29 in that span (88.2%). In NCAA post-season play, the Lady Chaps are 20-1 all-time.

SWEET HOME (ON) CHICAGO

LCU went 13-0 last season inside Rip Griffin Center. The Lady Chaps, who wrapped up home play with the LSC Championships and becoming the first team since 2007 to win the LSC Championship tournament on a campus venue, went 13-0 last season at home and with their active home win streak sitting at 91 games, which is the active and all-time leading mark in NCAA Division II women's basketball. LCU's last home loss came on Jan. 1, 2015 against Oklahoma City University. LCU, who also has a 7-0 mark in NCAA postseason play in Lubbock in the mix (not including a 3-0 mark in LSC postseason play), has also won 74 consecutive home conference games, with their last conference home loss occurring Jan. 10, 2013 (against Oklahoma City). They completed a 49-0 all-time mark in Heartland Conference home games (they are 21-0 in LSC home games).

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boy's basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011. Self has been on staff for all three of LCU's national titles.

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No.1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Title some claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Title some claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2016-17 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the champion-ship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D, ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

COVID went from being a wall to a hurdle in 2020-21, and one the Lady Chaps would be able to jump over. Through many cancellations and unknowns, LCU claimed a Lone Star Conference title and went to Canyon, Texas, where they claimed a NCAA Division II South Central title and a berth to another NCAA Elite Eight Tournament in Columbus, Ohio. It was there, LCU would claim their third national title, with wins over Daeman, Central Missouri and Drury to complete a 23-0 perfect season. They were the first NCAA Division II program to complete two undefeated season.

In 18 seasons at LCU (the 2020-21 season marks his 19th), Gomez enters the 2020-2021 season with a 448-125 collegiate coaching record. The 2021-22 season marks LCU's ninth since leaving the NAIA and LCU is 214-29 in that span (88.1%).

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an atlarge bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathemat-

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She has played an integral role in the coaching staff for all three NCAA national championships. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No.45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No.55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year for the Year by properties of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year for the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal as ment and the Girls Basketball Player of the Year ics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 31 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon.

Tampa ended the first quarter and opened the second quarter with old fashioned three-point plays, causing one of four lead changes in the second quarter, and taking a brief 13-12 lead. LCU answered with a 10-0 run, highlighted by Burr scoring the first nine points of the run. Burr's scoring surge, during the five-minute sequence, provided LCU a 24-17 lead with 1:07 left in the half. Burr finished the half with 12 points, matching a career high. LCU, with an 11-0 scoring advantage in fast-break points, led 24-21 at the half.

Allie Schulte, Duncan and Foster each hit three-pointers in the opening five minutes of the third quarter to spark an 11-2 run, giving LCU a 37-25 lead. Tampa closed the quarter with a pair of three-pointers to cut LCU's lead to 39-31 heading into the final quarter. The two teams combined for nine field goals in the quarter, with five from three-point range (LCU with three).

Three minutes into the fourth quarter, Tampa outscored LCU 6-2, keyed by an Eleanore Marciszewski three-pointer that aided the Spartans cutting the LCU lead to 41-37. LCU countered, controlling the ensuing three minutes and going on a 7-0 run capped by a Juliana Robertson three-pointer for a 48-37 lead. The run was part of an overall 15-2 run, with six points tallied by Burr to complete her 18-point performance. The Lady Chaps scoring surge built the lead to 56-39 (largest of the game) with 2:18 left.

Burr finished the game 6-of-10 from the field and 2-of-4 from long range. She also had a plus/minus of +17. She was one of four Lady Chaps with double figures, as Duncan, Foster and Schulte each had 10 points. Foster, a true freshman, finished with a +18 (plus/minus), which was second on the squad behind Robertson (+20). LCU, which outscored Tampa 26-13 in points-off-turnovers, shot 55% (11/20) from the field in the second half and finished the game 45.5% (20/44) from the field, while holding Tampa under 40% (39.5%, 17/43).

Tampa (1-2) was led by Melijah Sullivan, who had 12 points and seven rebounds. She was joined offensively by Dori Nagy, who had 10 points.

TURNING POINT

With 3:34 remaining in the game and LCU leading 48-39, Laynee Burr drew a foul to earn a trip to the free-throw line. The foul was called against Terri Battle, but Sullivan was disgruntled and slammed the ball resulting in a technical foul. The result of the fouls was four free throws for Burr, who made all four free throws. LCU also received the possession following the free-throws, which ended with a field goal from Burr. So LCU scored six points on one possession and the series extended LCU's lead to 54-39.
