Conference Player of the Week honors, but for a first time on the offensive side, receiving Offensive Player of the Week. Schulte played a significant role for LCU in home wins over No. 1 Lander and No. 20 Daemen to extend the Lady Chaps Division II record home win streak to 93 games, as she led the team with 14.5 points per game on the week. In the win over top-ranked Lander, the Lady Chaps overcame a 10-point deficit in the final seven minutes at the free-throw line, hitting 30-of-31 (96.8%) as a team in the game. Schulte, a fifth-year member of the Lady Chaps from Nazareth, Texas, was successful on all 10 free throw attempts, matching an LCU Rip Griffin Center record. Schulte also helped LCU to a big win over Daemen, posting the final six points of the first quarter to spark a 15-2 run, which allowed the Lady Chaps to never trail in the contest. In addition to averaging 14.5 points per game, Schulte averaged a +15.5 plus/minus, with a +23 in their win over Daemen.

- •> Laynee Burr, who has two performances of at least 18 points this season, is averaging 10.1 points per game to give LCU three players averaging double figures in scoring. A member of the DII CCA Tip-Off Classic at the Trailhead All-Tournament Team selection, Burr entered the week seventh in the conference in steals (10) and fourth in assists with 20 (61st nationally) on the season (2.9 per game).
- •> LCU opened the season making their first 14 free-throw attempts and are 86.7% (111/128) from the free-throw line, which ranks fourth nationally. From their game against Tampa to their game at Colorado Christian, in which they made 13 consecutive free-throws to start the game, LCU made a sequence of 17 consecutive free-throws. They topped that mark Saturday, making 43 consecutive free-throws (28 straight from Friday's game against Lander carried into the sequence). Schulte is 35-of-36 (97.2%) from the free-throw line on the season, which is 25th nationally, but is the top mark in the nation by any player with a miss (24 players are shooting 100% based on NCAA minimum statistical requirements to qualify). Burr is seventh in the conference, shooting 85.7% from the line (18of-21).

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boy's basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011. Self has been on staff for all three of LCU's national titles.

In 10 seasons at the helm while an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons at the helm, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the results have not changed since transitioning. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 nistory. They toniewed in 2014-2015 calaming Co-nearitand Conference Regular Season tute nonors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season. That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season. A season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No.1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually a NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2016-17 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the champion-ship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D, ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

COVID went from being a wall to a hurdle in 2020-21, and one the Lady Chaps would be able to jump over. Through many cancellations and unknowns, LCU claimed a Lone Star Conference title and went to Canyon, Texas, where they claimed a NCAA Division II South Central title and a berth to another NCAA Elite Eight Tournament in Columbus, Ohio. It was there, LCU would claim their third national title, with wins over Daeman, Central Missouri and Drury to complete a 23-0 perfect season. They were the first NCAA Division II program to complete two undefeated season.

In 18 seasons at LCU (the 2020-21 season marks his 19th), Gomez enters the 2020-2021 season with a 448-125 collegiate coaching record. The 2021-22 season marks LCU's ninth since leaving the NAIA and LCU is 214-29 in that span (88.1%).

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific.

LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University.

In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU.

LCU had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded.

In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an atlarge bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathemat-

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She has played an integral role in the coaching staff for all three NCAA national championships. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No.45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No.55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year for the Year by properties of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year for the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal as ment and the Girls Basketball Player of the Year ics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 31 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon.

LCU Claims Third Win Over Nationally Ranked Program This Season

Lady Chaps Win Despite Having Their Worst Shooting Performance at Home Since 2012

Behind a 17-point performance from Allie Schulte, No.1 Lubbock Christian University claimed their third win over a nationally ranked program this season, as the Lady Chaps completed their 93rd consecutive home win with a 62-37 win over No.20 Daemen College Saturday night inside Rip Griffin Center.

LCU won despite shooting 35.2% from the field (19/54). The percentage ended a streak of 47 consecutive home games in which LCU shot at least 40% at home. The last time LCU shot 35.2% or worse at home was on Feb. 11, 2012, as Oklahoma City held them to 31.4% in a home loss. The last time LCU shot as low of a percentage as Saturday and still won the game was Jan. 28, 2012 at home against Southern Nazarene.

The Lady Chaps also never trailed in the contest. Channing Cunyus made the Lady Chaps first shot attempt of the game, for a 2-0 lead, but then the Lady Chaps missed their next seven shot attempts. Daemen did not take advantage of the early opportunity, as they opened the game 1-of-7 and 2-of-13 from the field. LCU earned early trips to the free-throw line and a trio of trips helped LCU take an 8-2 lead 4:40 into the game. Sydney Hvizdzak ended LCU's run with a three-point field goal to spark a 5-0 run, which cut LCU's lead to 8-7. In the final 1:41 of the first quarter, LCU closed the quarter on an 8-0 run, with Schulte scoring the final six points of the quarter for a 16-7 LCU lead. Schulte was 2-of-2 from the field in the guarter, while her teammates were a combined 2-of-9.

The 8-0 run turned into a 15-2 run for the Lady Chaps, as Laynee Burr's three-pointer 2:37 into the quarter provided LCU a 23-9 advantage. Grace Foster scored LCU's final four points of the half to give LCU a 27-14 halftime lead.
