PRIOR MEETING VS. WNMU

LUBBOCK, Texas (February 24, 2022) - In the previous meeting of the season (Dec. 11, 2021), Lubbock Christian University outscored Western New Mexico 33-4 in points-off-turnovers. It was déjà vu all over again Thursday night inside Rip Griffin Center, as No.11 LCU used a 33-2 scoring advantage in points-off-turnovers to defeat Western New Mexico 76-49 in Lone Star Conference play and their regular season finale celebrated by Senior Night.

LCU forced WNMU into 22 turnovers (LCU committed five in the entire game), forcing the Mustangs into eight mishaps in the first quarter of play. Caitlyn Cunyus, one of two seniors celebrating Senior Night (joining Laynee Burr), opened the game with a three-pointer and helped LCU jump out to an 8-0 lead. Turnovers were not the only bugaboo for the Mustangs to open the game, as they were held to one field goal in the opening quarter. They opened the game 1-of-10 from the field and the one field goal was the only thing interrupting a 19-2 lead to start the game. LCU had five points in the quarter from Robertson and had a 15-0 scoring advantage in points-off-turnovers in the quarter to take a 19-4 lead into the second quarter.

The Lady Chaps opened the second quarter with a 6-0 run and Allie Schulte's layup with 7:41 left in the half provided LCU a 25-4 lead. Ashton Duncan and Robertson each connected on three-pointers midway through the period and LCU led 35-8 with 4:33 remaining in the half. Robertson added another five points in the quarter to have 10 points at the break and LCU led 43-15 at the intermission behind a 6-of-12 three-point shooting performance in the half.

Credit WNMU for their effort in the second half. The Mustangs, after shooting 29.4% (5/17) in the first half, shot 66.7% (6/9) in the third quarter. Despite their hot shooting, LCU was able to get a 9-3 run and a 6-0 run to build the lead to its largest at 64-27 with 1:13 remaining. Brylee Winfrey matched a career high with five points and all were in the third quarter to lead LCU in the frame, as they led 64-30 heading into the fourth quarter.

All 15 dressed Lady Chaps received playing time in the fourth quarter. Meanwhile, WNMU went 8-of-16 (50%) in the quarter and outscored LCU 19-12 in the quarter. LCU did have a 5-0 run in the quarter and received four points

LCU had a 31-0 scoring advantage in points-off-turnovers through three quarters, and their 33 points overall in the category matched a season high from the two teams' previous meeting. Robertson led LCU with 14 points and missed a double-double by a rebound (nine rebounds). She also co-led LCU with three steals, as the squad finished with 14 steals. Schulte was LCU's only other player in double figures in scoring (finished with 10 points).

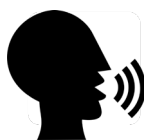

WNMU (6-15, 2-11) was led by Cynaye Bobbitt, who finished with a game-high 17 points. They also received 15 points from Zyan Smith and 13 points from Alina Simon.

The 2022-23 season marks Steve Gomez's 20th season at the helm of the Lady Chaps and the 10th season at the NCAA level. He opens the campaign with a 476-132 record, which includes a 22-2 record in NCAA postseason play.

In his first 10 seasons at the helm, as LCU was an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship Tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the winning tradition did not change. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season.

That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season, which was a season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No. 1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually their first NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2016-17 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

COVID went from being a wall to a hurdle in 2020-21, and one the Lady Chaps would be able to jump over. Through many cancellations and unknowns, LCU claimed a Lone Star Conference title and went to Canyon, Texas, where they claimed a NCAA Division II South Central title and a berth to another NCAA Elite Eight Tournament in Columbus, Ohio. It was there, LCU would claim their third national title, with wins over Daemen, Central Missouri and Drury to complete a 23-0 perfect season. They were the first NCAA Division II program to complete two undefeated seasons.

The Lady Chaps were preseason favorites to open the 2021-22 season. LCU surpassed a NCAA Div. II record 100 consecutive home wins during the season, which ended at the South Central Regional with LCU falling in the title game to conclude the season with a 28-7 record. Lubbock Christian closed the 2021-22 season holding a 242-36 record (87.1%) since leaving the NAIA.

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific. LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University. In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU. They had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near-thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded. In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 31 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon. Landon serves on the women's basketball coaching staff at Texas Tech.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boys' basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011. Self has been on staff for all three of LCU's national titles.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She has played an integral role in the coaching staff for all three NCAA national championships. Wilson was named to the Dave Campbell's Texas Basketball Top-40 Coaches Under-40 List in 2021. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No. 45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No. 55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

Belles Top Lady Chaps Before The Final Bell

Audrey Robertson's First Career Double-Double Not Enough, as Tayjanna McGhee-Pleasant Sinks A Shot With 0.9-Seconds Left for ASU

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- ANGELO STATE

51

JAN. 7 - SAN ANGELO, TEXAS

JUNELL CENTER

Tayjanna McGhee-Pleasant jumper from the left elbow with 0.9-seconds remaining was the go-ahead bucket to lead Angelo State past Lubbock Christian University 53-51 in a matchup of the Lone Star Conference's only unbeaten teams in West Division play Saturday afternoon inside Junell Center.

The loss was LCU's first of the season in which they led at the half (9-1) and led at the close of the third quarter (11-1). LCU led 41-39 to open the fourth quarter and the two teams combined for four field goals (two each) over the first 7:21 of the quarter. Shaylee Stovall nailed a three-pointer for LCU to give them a 46-43 lead with 5:49 remaining. She hit another with 1:37 remaining to end a 5-0 ASU run give LCU a 49-48 lead. ASU answered 16 seconds later with a field goal from Briley Merket to take a 50-49 lead. A missed field goal and a turnover resulted in LCU trailing 50-49 with 16 seconds remaining. They fouled Sawyer Lloyd and she missed one of two free-throws and ASU led 51-49. Grace Foster was able to drive in and tie the game at 51-51 with a bucket in the paint. ASU responded with a timeout for a half-court inbound with nine seconds left and they found McGhee-Pleasant, who hit a step-back jumper from the left elbow to regain the Belles lead for the win.

McGhee-Pleasant carried the Belles in the fourth quarter, scoring nine of their 14 points in the quarter. She posted 12 points in the second half and finished with 16 points and 11 rebounds for a double-double performance. Madeline Stephens led the Belles in the contest with 18 points. Lloyd finished with six steals, 10 rebounds and seven assists.

LCU was outscored in each quarter except the second quarter of play. Trailing 17-10 (trailed as much as 13-5 with 2:55 remaining in the first quarter) after the first quarter (Audrey Robertson scored all 10 points in the quarter for LCU), LCU opened the second quarter with Stovall following a Foster field goal with a pair of three-pointers to cap an 8-0 run for an 18-17 LCU lead. ASU went a stretch going 1-of-10 and 1-of-11 from the field and the poor shooting allowed LCU to close the first half on a 10-2 run for a 28-23 halftime lead.

Despite shooting 17.6% (3/17) in the second quarter, ASU led LCU at the half in shooting from the field, as they were 29.4% (10/34) while LCU, who shot 15.4% in the first quarter (2/13), was shooting 28.1% (9/32). Robertson led LCU with 14 points and six rebounds in the first half.

LCU opened the second half on a 6-2 run to build their lead to its largest at 34-25 3:04 into the third quarter. The Lady Chaps led 39-30 with 4:04 remaining in the quarter, but ASU responded with a 7-0 run and closed the quarter on a 9-2 run to cut LCU's lead to 41-39.

Robertson led LCU with 18 points and completed her first career double-double with a career-high 12 rebounds. Stovall also finished in double figures in scoring with 12 points off a career-high four three-pointers. LCU fell despite a 10-8 advantage in second-chance scoring and an 18-11 scoring advantage in points-off-turnovers. They shot a season-low 29.5% from the field (18/61).

The contest was a West Division meeting of Lone Star Conference programs and each team entered the game 3-0 in the West Division and the only unbeaten teams in the division. ASU remains as the only unbeaten team, as they improved to 4-0 in the division, while LCU drops to 3-1. ASU also improves to 13-2 overall and 8-1 in the LSC. Lubbock Christian dropped to 11-5 overall and they are 6-2 in the LSC. All-time, LCU falls to 16-5 against ASU and they are 6-3 historically in San Angelo, Texas.

TURNING POINT

With 6:56 remaining in the third quarter and LCU leading 34-25, LCU went a stretch of 7:43 in which they were 2-of-13 from the field (15.4%), which allowed ASU to gradually come back. A layup by Audrey Robertson ended the dry spell and put LCU up 43-41.
