WEEK OF BEASTS IN THE EAST

Lubbock Christian University heads to non-divisional Lone Star Conference play facing the top two East Division teams this week, as LCU heads to Tyler, Texas Thursday to face UT Tyler and then to Denton, Texas Saturday to face No.7 Texas Woman's. Thursday's opponent, UT Tyler, had a nine-game win streak snapped Saturday at Texas A&M-Kingsville, while TWU heads into their Thursday contest (hosting West Texas A&M) on a 13-game win streak. While divisional records are not at stake this week, conference records are. If LCU was able to go 2-0 on the week, they could potentially be in the mix for the top spot in the LSC. LCU enters the week 8-2 in the LSC (tied for fourth in the LSC with WT), while TWU is 10-0 and UTT is 9-1.

STINGIN' STANGS

Grace Foster produced a second straight double-double performance (14 points, 13 rebounds) and Reese Schumann (6 blocks) and Audrey Spurgin (9 points) each had career-high performances, which helped LCU get a second half surge to top Western New Mexico 67-50 Saturday inside Rip Griffin Center.

Foster's double-double was her conference-leading seventh of the season. Schumann, whose career-high six blocks is the most by a Lady Chaps member this season, finished with 10 points and eight rebounds (was also a +24 in plus/minus), and joined Foster as the only other Lady Chaps member to finish with at least 10 points. The Audrey's (Robertson and Spurgin) each finished with nine points. LCU finished the game shooting 41.7% from the field (25/60) and they were 50% (21/42) inside the arc (63.6% in the second half). Defensively, LCU held WNMU to 30.9% (21/68) shooting and they posted a season-high eight blocks.

10 BLOCKS LATER

Lubbock Christian University women's basketball claimed their first weekly conference defensive honor of the season, as the Lone Star Conference named Lady Chaparrals forward Reese Schumann their Defensive Player of the Week.

It was a solid week for Schumann, who helped LCU with home wins over Eastern New Mexico and Western New Mexico with 10 blocks and an average of 11.5 points per game. Schumann opened the week going 5-of-5 from the field and finishing with a career-high 13 points and four blocks against ENMU. She fol-

PRIOR MEETING VS. UTT

TYLER, Texas (January 15, 2022) - The University of Texas at Tyler, entering the game ranked eighth in NCAA Division II in field goal shooting, was held to 28% shooting from the field by No.2 Lubbock Christian University. The Lady Chaparrals received 20 points from Ashton Duncan, who drained six three-pointers, and Juliana Robertson posted a career-high 18 rebounds, as they defeated UT Tyler 57-37 in Lone Star Conference play Saturday inside Patriot Center.

Robertson's 18 rebounds were the most by a Lady Chaps member since Kellyn Schneider posted 18 rebounds on the exact date in 2015 against Rogers State. The rebound performance shared by Robertson and Schneider are the highest rebound marks by a Lady Chap since Candace Clenney had 19 against Science & Arts of Oklahoma on Feb. 23, 2006. LCU also received a career-high nine rebounds from Channing Cunyus, as Cunyus and Robertson combined for 27 of LCU's 39 rebounds. LCU had a 39-25 advantage in rebounds, matching a season high for rebounding advantage (14).

Duncan, who also six three-pointers at UT Tyler on Feb. 1, 2020, got off to a hot start early in the game. LCU, missing their first three shot attempts of the game, made four straight three-pointers. Laynee Burr hit the first three-pointer for LCU, nearly three minutes into the game, had Duncan follow with three consecutive three-pointers. Duncan was 4-of-6 from long range in the quarter and her second three-pointer was the game's fifth and final lead change. The shot also led to a 14-0 LCU run, with the first 11 points closing out the first quarter scoring for a 17-8 LCU lead.

Cunyus had five points in the quarter and all were tallied in the final 4:15 of the quarter, as LCU closed the quarter on a 9-2 run for a 44-26 lead.

An 8-2 UTT surge pulled the Pats within 13 (48-35) with 5:54 left in the contest, but UTT closed the game making one of their last nine field goal attempts. Robertson had five points and five rebounds in the quarter, which gave her 10 rebounds in the half. PRIOR MEETING VS. TWU

LUBBOCK, Texas (February 5, 2022) - Ashton Duncan (18 points) and Channing Cunyus (14 points) combined for 32 points and were major contributors of No.13 Lubbock Christian University closing the game on an 11-5 run to defeat Lone Star Conference co-leading Texas Woman's 70-62 Saturday afternoon inside Rip Griffin Center.

TWU had rallied with a 7-0 run to cut LCU's lead down to 57-55 in the fourth quarter. Sparking the rally was Ashley Ingram, who scored seven of her game-high 23 points in the opening three minutes of the fourth quarter. Cunyus ended the 7-0 TWU run with a layup as 6:09 remained in the quarter. For the next 2:27, the only points obtained in the game were by TWU's Keslyn King, which put TWU behind 59-57. The game remained 59-57 for the next 1:41, until Cunyus had a layup and three-pointer as part of a 7-0 LCU run for a 66-57 lead (2:27 remained). The Pioneers scored the next five points, and a Sadie Moyer three-pointer with 10 seconds left cut LCU's lead to 66-62. Duncan was fouled and scored the game's final four points inside the game's final 10 seconds.

LCU had led for the game's final 25:38. The first half of the game was a series of alternating lead changes. Ingram scored the game's first bucket before Duncan responded with back-to-back three-pointers for a 9-4 LCU lead. Allie Schulte, who had an and-one play to open LCU's scoring, hit a three-pointer with 5:20 left in the half for a 12-6 LCU advantage. Duncan and Schulte each had six points in the first quarter, and Grace Foster scored the final five points of the quarter for a 19-14 advantage heading into the second quarter.

Brielle Williams had two three-pointers in the game for TWU. They came in a span of 1:57 and served as book-ends to a 12-3 run for a 26-22 TWU lead. Six different Lady Chaps responded by providing field goals to fuel a 14-0 run, as LCU closed the half on an 18-4 run for a 40-30 halftime lead.

The Pioneers opened the second half on a 6-0 run and had their deficit cut to a four points twice before Laynee Burr (6 points) and Juliana Robertson (4 points) combined for 10 points in the final seven minutes of the third quarter. LCU took a 52-46 lead into the fourth quarter

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Lubbock Cooper High School (7 seasons)
LCU (20th season)

The 2022-23 season marks Steve Gomez's 20th season at the helm of the Lady Chaps and the 10th season at the NCAA level. He opens the campaign with a 476-132 record, which includes a 22-2 record in NCAA postseason play.

In his first 10 seasons at the helm, as LCU was an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship Tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the winning tradition did not change. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season.

That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season, which was a season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No. 1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually their first NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2016-17 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

COVID went from being a wall to a hurdle in 2020-21, and one the Lady Chaps would be able to jump over. Through many cancellations and unknowns, LCU claimed a Lone Star Conference title and went to Canyon, Texas, where they claimed a NCAA Division II South Central title and a berth to another NCAA Elite Eight Tournament in Columbus, Ohio. It was there, LCU would claim their third national title, with wins over Daemen, Central Missouri and Drury to complete a 23-0 perfect season. They were the first NCAA Division II program to complete two undefeated seasons.

The Lady Chaps were preseason favorites to open the 2021-22 season. LCU surpassed a NCAA Div. II record 100 consecutive home wins during the season, which ended at the South Central Regional with LCU falling in the title game to conclude the season with a 28-7 record. Lubbock Christian closed the 2021-22 season holding a 242-36 record (87.1%) since leaving the NAIA.

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific. LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University. In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU. They had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near-thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded. In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 31 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon. Landon serves on the women's basketball coaching staff at Texas Tech.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boys' basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011. Self has been on staff for all three of LCU's national titles.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She has played an integral role in the coaching staff for all three NCAA national championships. Wilson was named to the Dave Campbell's Texas Basketball Top-40 Coaches Under-40 List in 2021. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No. 45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No. 55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

Lady Chaps Block WNMU's Bid For A Win With Strong Third Quarter

LCU Gets Five Blocks In Opening Quarter From Reese Schumann and Finishes With Season-High Eight Blocks

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- WESTERN N.M.

67 JAN. 14 - LUBBOCK, TEXAS 50

RIP GRIFFIN CENTER

Grace Foster produced a second straight double-double performance (14 points, 13 rebounds) and Reese Schumann (6 blocks) and Audrey Spurgin (9 points) each had career-high performances, which helped Lubbock Christian University get a second half surge to top Western New Mexico 67-50. The Lone Star Conference West Division victory for LCU marked their 112th consecutive home win inside Rip Griffin Center.

LCU overcame a sluggish first half in which there were three lead changes and the score tied on seven occasions. The Mustangs led for 8:25 of the 12:32 in which the game was not tied in the first half. WNMU ended the first half scoreless over the final 6:57, but they opened the second half scoring with a three-pointer from Susi Namao to cut LCU's lead to 24-22. WNMU's first two buckets of the second half were three-pointers, but the following three pointer (from Sydney Wright) was the only Mustangs points mixed into an 11-3 LCU run. Audrey Robertson had a pair of field goals and Stovall capped the run with a three-pointer with 6:26 left in the quarter for a 35-25 LCU lead. Mix in an 8-0 LCU run, which included a three-point play from Foster, and LCU would go on a 19-5 scoring surge for a 43-27 advantage with 3:15 left in the third quarter (LCU had a sequence in which they were 8-of-10 from the field in the third quarter). Foster closed the quarter with a three-pointer and LCU led 48-31 at the close of the quarter.

Spargin came alive in the fourth quarter for LCU, scoring their first six points of the quarter. The Lady Chaps never let their lead slip under 17 points and led as much as 23 (67-44 with 1:41 remaining) after Rachel Haase opened a 7-2 run with a three-pointer.

Foster and Spargin co-led LCU in second half scoring with eight points apiece. Ten (10) different Lady Chaps figured into the scoring in the second half and LCU shot 58.6% (17/29) from the field.

The numbers were huge improvement over the first half. LCU opened the game shooting 26.7% from the field in the first quarter and shot 25.8% (8/31) in the first half. The two teams combined to make one three-pointer on 14 attempts. The one trey was by LCU's Shaylee Stovall and it was connected on LCU's ninth attempt, as they ended the half 1-of-11 (9.1%) from long distance in the half. WNMU led as much as four points and LCU's largest lead of the first half came off a 9-0 run to end the half with a 24-19 lead.

Foster's double-double was her conference-leading seventh of the season. Schumann, whose career-high six blocks is the most by a Lady Chaps member this season, finished with 10 points and eight rebounds (was also a +24 in plus/minus), and joined Foster as the only other Lady Chaps member to finish with at least 10 points. The Audreys (Robertson and Spurgin) each finished with nine points. LCU finished the game shooting 41.7% from the field (25/60) and they were 50% (21/42) inside the arc (63.6% in the second half). Defensively, LCU held WNMU to 30.9% (21/68) shooting and they posted a season-high eight blocks.

WNMU received a double-double from Diamond Moore, who posted 17 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Mustangs in each category. Namao finished with 12 points to join Moore in double figures.

The win placed LCU (9-0 at home) with a 13-5 season record and an 8-2 mark in LSC play (5-1 in West Division), while WNMU fell to 4-11 overall and 2-8 in conference (2-4 in West). The win was LCU's 11th consecutive win in the all-time series against WNMU and they lead the all-time series 15-10 (9-2 in Lubbock).

TURNING POINT

WNMU had a 19-15 lead after a 9-2 run, but then went the remaining 6:57 of the first half without a point. LCU did not fully take advantage of the Mustangs dry spell, as they were 3-of-12 (25%) from the field over the 6:57 span while WNMU was scoreless behind a sequence of 10 consecutive missed field goal attempts. LCU did however outscore WNMU 9-0 for a 24-19 halftime lead. Mix the 9-0 into the third quarter scoring and LCU outscored WNMU 33-12 over a span of 16:57.
