RIVALRY ON THE RANGE

The hardwood edition of Rivalry on the Range gets underway Thursday, as Lubbock Christian and West Texas A&M open a home-and-home week for the final week of the regular season. Both teams are mathematically eligible to claim a West Division title in the Lone Star Conference, which determines the No.2 seed in the LSC Championships. LCU (10-2), Angelo State (10-3) and West Texas A&M (8-4) are the top three teams in the West Division heading into the final week.

SOMETHING ABOUT ST. MARY'S

A 22-2 run in the second half propelled Lubbock Christian University to a 60-46 Lone Star Conference victory over St. Mary's Saturday afternoon inside Rip Griffin Center.

Grace Foster led LCU with 11 points and 11 rebounds to convert her 11th double-double performance of the season. She sniffed a triple-double posting a career-high seven assists in the contest as well. Maci Maddox and Robertson joined Foster in double figures in scoring, as they each contributed 10 points. LCU outscored the Rattlers 18-8 from the free-throw line, with starters (Foster, Maddox, Robertson, Stovall) combining to go 14-of-16 (87.5%) from the line. Maddox and McCoy each had eight points from the field to lead LCU in points from the field.

IT'S ACADEMIC

The 2022-23 Academic All-District® Women's Basketball Teams, selected by College Sports Communicators (formerly known as CoSIDA), recognized the nation's top studentathletes for their combined performances on the court and in the classroom and included on their list were four Lubbock Christian University women's basketball student-athletes. Whitney Cox, Grace Foster, Audrey Robertson and Reese Schumann were each recognized for their classroom performance.

LCU, claiming four student-athlete Academic All-District recipients, posts their highest total of All-District selections since eligible at the NCAA level (2014-15 was their first season eligible). The quartet gives LCU 12 Academic All-District selections in women's basketball at the NCAA Div. II level in program history. LCU has received an All-District selection in all but one season in which they have been eligible to receive recognition.

In order to be selected to an academic all-district team, a student-athlete must demonstrate success on the playing field and in the classroom, with academic and athletic achievements taken into consideration. The student-athlete must possess a minimum 3.30 cumulative GPA and be at least a sophomore in academic standing.

PRIOR MEETING VS. WT

CANYON, Texas (March 14, 2022) – Missed shots in one game will not stain the legacy of five starters that walked off the floor for the last time wearing a Lady Chaparrals uniform. Five Lubbock Christian University starters with a pair of NCAA Division II national titles on their resume, including a trio of fifth-year players that leave with a 142-7 overall record and a 70-0 record on their home floor, played their final game, as the No.3-seeded Lady Chaps fell 69-65 to No.1-seed West Texas A&M in the championship game of the 2022 Division II Women's Basketball South Central Regional at First United Bank Center. The loss marked LCU's first loss (all-time) in a NCAA regional tournament and their second loss ever in a NCAA postseason game.

Juliana Robertson recorded the 10th LCU double-double in NCAA Postseason play her second in a postseason contest, as she had 15 points and 12 rebounds. She led LCU in scoring in the first quarter, scoring LCU's final four points of the quarter. Channing Cunyus opened the scoring with a three-pointer, but the Lady Buffs responded on a 12-4 run for a 12-7 lead. Robertson's points to close the quarter cut the WT lead to 18-14 heading into the second quarter.

Allie Schulte, who was limited and came off the bench, had a series of four consecutive points in the second quarter, and it was part of a 7-0 run to climb LCU within two points (23-21). Despite being held to a 32.1% shooting percentage in the half, WT led 29-24 at the break.

With 4:22 left in the third quarter, WT took their largest lead of the second half at 35-28. LCU responded on a 7-1 run, with Laynee Burr scoring the final four points of the quarter to cut the WT advantage to 36-35 at the close of the quarter.

The 7-1 run turned into a 11-2 run and LCU took a 39-37 lead two minutes into the fourth quarter. A three-point play by Schulte put LCU up 44-41 with 5:59 remaining. Karley Motschenbacher answered for WT with six points of a 10-2 WT run for a 51-46 WT lead with 3:02 left. Schulte connected on a three-pointer to end the streak and LCU scored six of the next eight points and LCU trailed 53-52 with 50 seconds remaining. LCU went the final 1:38 of the game without a field goal and WT was able to hold on for a 59-54 victory.

WT, 26-10, received 16 points from Motschenbacher, as she was 5-of-8 from the field. Alivia Lewis and Zam Roberts also finished with 11 points.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Lubbock Cooper High School (7 seasons)
LCU (20th season)

The 2022-23 season marks Steve Gomez's 20th season at the helm of the Lady Chaps and the 10th season at the NCAA level. He opens the campaign with a 476-132 record, which includes a 22-2 record in NCAA postseason play.

In his first 10 seasons at the helm, as LCU was an NAIA institution, the Lady Chaps made 10 consecutive trips to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball National Championship Tournament. Coach Gomez's arrival to the LCU women's basketball program certainly changed the foundation of the program. In those 10 seasons, LCU posted a 234-96 record under Gomez in the NAIA.

LCU jumped into NCAA Division II transition in 2013 (membership in 2015) and the winning tradition did not change. LCU went a remarkable 25-1 overall in 2013-2014 and they completed the Heartland Conference with a perfect 20-0 mark for their first perfect conference record in program history. They followed in 2014-2015 claiming Co-Heartland Conference Regular Season title honors after a 15-3 stretch in conference and a 21-7 overall season.

That led to an astounding 2015-2016 season, which was a season that started off with an exhibition game loss at NCAA Div. I No.1 Connecticut and ended with a perfect 35-0 season in LCU's first season eligible for NCAA postseason. They went 18-0 in Heartland Conference play to capture a regular season title and then a Heartland Conference Tournament title (first season eligible for the tournament). The Lady Chaps went on to capture a South Central Regional Tournament title and eventually their first NCAA Div. II National Title. Gomez claimed WBCA NCAA Div. II National Coach of the Year honors and also spent a portion of the offseason as a court coach at the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

2016-17 served as a rebuilding year for the Lady Chaps, who returned one starter off the championship squad. Despite the rebuilding, LCU still went 19-11 overall and 12-4 in conference, en route to the Heartland Conference Tournament championship game, which they lost to St. Edward's. They bounced back in 2017-18, claiming another Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, leading to Gomez receiving Heartland Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Lady Chaps hosted the NCAA Division II South Central Region Tournament for a second time and won the tournament to stamp their second berth towards an NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament loss. They lost to eventual national champion Central Missouri at the tournament held in Sioux Falls, S.D., ending their season with a 31-2 record.

The Lady Chaps returned to the Elite Eight Tournament for the third year in a four-year span in the 2018-19 season after claiming a Heartland Conference regular season and tournament title, along with a NCAA Division II South Central Region tournament championship after wins at Colorado Mesa and at home over Angelo State. LCU made an outstanding run towards their second NCAA Division II National Title, defeating Southwestern Oklahoma State in double overtime to claim the trophy. Gomez, who picked up his third Heartland Coach of the Year honor, became the seventh head coach in NCAA Division II women's basketball history to claim multiple titles. He also was named Female Team Coach of the Year at the West Texas Sports Persons of the Year Banquet following the season.

LCU's title defense was rudely interrupted by the COVID Pandemic in 2019-20. LCU was 28-3 and claimed the Lone Star Conference Championship during their first season in the conference. LCU was chosen to host the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals for a third time, but the COVID shutdown halted the remainder of the season less than 24 hours prior to the first tournament game.

COVID went from being a wall to a hurdle in 2020-21, and one the Lady Chaps would be able to jump over. Through many cancellations and unknowns, LCU claimed a Lone Star Conference title and went to Canyon, Texas, where they claimed a NCAA Division II South Central title and a berth to another NCAA Elite Eight Tournament in Columbus, Ohio. It was there, LCU would claim their third national title, with wins over Daemen, Central Missouri and Drury to complete a 23-0 perfect season. They were the first NCAA Division II program to complete two undefeated seasons.

The Lady Chaps were preseason favorites to open the 2021-22 season. LCU surpassed a NCAA Div. II record 100 consecutive home wins during the season, which ended at the South Central Regional with LCU falling in the title game to conclude the season with a 28-7 record. Lubbock Christian closed the 2021-22 season holding a 242-36 record (87.1%) since leaving the NAIA.

In their final two seasons in the NAIA (2011-2012, 2012-2013), LCU set program single-season win records in each of the seasons. The Lady Chaps went 31-4 in 2013-2014, setting a program single-season wins mark (31). The Lady Chaps won their first ever Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament title en route to their final trip to the NAIA National Championship tournament. In 2011-2012, LCU went 28-6 and made their second ever appearance in the Semifinals of the NAIA National Championship Tournament. They lost out to eventual national champions Oklahoma City to mark the second consecutive season in which they lost out to the team who would claim the title. LCU claimed their second Sooner Athletic Conference crown in program history, as they joined Oklahoma City as conference co-champions with a 21-1 record. They handed OCU their only loss of the season.

LCU went 25-10 in 2010-2011 and marched into the Elite Eight for a third time in program history. The Lady Chaps, who finished third in the Sooner Athletic Conference, lost in the NAIA National Championship to eventual national champion Azusa Pacific. LCU went 19-12 in the 2009-2010 season, which included a 13-9 finish in the Sooner Athletic Conference, and had their season come to an end in the National Tournament. The highlight of the season was an exhibition victory inside the United Spirit Arena against Texas Tech University. In 2009-2010, the Lady Chaps finished with a solid 27-7 record and made a trip to the Sweet Sixteen of the National Tournament following a second-place Sooner Athletic Conference season. Gomez chalked up a milestone during the season, becoming the all-time women's basketball wins leader at LCU. They had a memorable 2007-2008 campaign, as the Lady Chaps made another voyage to the NAIA National Tournament. The Lady Chaps completed a 25-10 season, which included a trip to the Elite Eight in the tournament for their second best finish in program history.

In 2006-2007, Gomez led the Lady Chaps to a myriad of firsts in their near-thirty year history. Lubbock Christian never left the top-10 in the NAIA National Poll, and set a school mark for wins in a season with 26, eclipsing the school mark of 23 they set the prior season. In addition, LCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament, finishing in the Sweet Sixteen and most impressively, the Lady Chaps captured a share of the Sooner Athletic Conference regular season championship, becoming the first school from outside of the State of Oklahoma to do so in the thirty-one years since the conference was founded. In 2005-2006, Gomez's Lady Chaps enjoyed what was arguably at the time the best season in school history, as they finished with an overall record of 23-12, and made an unparalleled run at the NAIA National Tournament. Seeded sixth in their eight team bracket in the tournament, Gomez's girls proceeded to oust four of the top six teams in the nation and become the lowest seed ever to reach either the Fab Four or National Championship; appropriately enough, he was named the SAC's Coach of the Year.

In his first season, Gomez's Lady Chaps went 16-14 and finished fifth in the Sooner Athletic Conference. While this might appear to be an average year, big wins for the Lady Chaps and entry into the NAIA National Poll for the first time proved good enough for an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament: LCU women's first trip to the big dance. In his second season, the Lady Chaps were able to maintain that level of success. After getting off to the best conference start since joining the Sooner Athletic Conference at 6-2, LCU finished SAC play at 10-8, good enough for another fifth place finish, and for the second season in a row, Coach Gomez guided the Lady Chaps to the NAIA National Tournament.

An LCU graduate, Gomez was a standout perimeter player for Coach John Copeland in the late 1980s, and to this day, he still holds the school record for career free throw percentage at .855. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Mathematics and consistently used his degree to teach in the classroom while pursuing coaching on the sidelines. Gomez's career began at Lubbock Monterey High School where he served as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program from 1988 to 1995. In 1996, Gomez accepted the men's basketball head coaching position at Lubbock Cooper High School, where he remained until returning to Lubbock Christian University to take over the reigns of the Lady Chaps in 2003. During his seven seasons at Cooper, the basketball program broke new ground making the playoffs four times, managing the school's first state ranking, and capturing the Pirates only district championship in Gomez's final season. One of the main reasons Coach Gomez is so successful on the court is the support he receives off of it. Steve has been married to his wife Shawna for 31 years, and the couple has two sons: Hayden and Landon. Landon serves on the women's basketball coaching staff at Texas Tech.

VIC SELF ASSISTANT COACH

Self is a longtime familiar face to basketball among the South Plains. He spent 25 years coaching basketball at Lubbock's Monterey High School and 20 spent as the head coach of the Plainsmen boys' basketball team. Self is no stranger to LCU. The Portales, New Mexico native lettered in basketball and tennis at Lubbock Christian in 1980-1981, after spending two years at Eastern New Mexico University. His first coaching job was as an assistant coach for John Copeland on the Chaps basketball staff. In two decades at Monterey, Self compiled a 416-237 record, four district titles and 13 playoff appearances. Monterey even made a trip to the regional tournament. He rejoins Gomez, but in a reversal of roles. Gomez served as an assistant for Self from 1988-1996. Self resigned from coaching basketball in 2008, but continued to coach boy's golf at Monterey until retiring in 2011. Self has been on staff for all three of LCU's national titles.

KAYCIE WILSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Kaycie joined the LCU women's basketball coaching staff in the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant through the 2015-16 season. She has played an integral role in the coaching staff for all three NCAA national championships. Wilson was named to the Dave Campbell's Texas Basketball Top-40 Coaches Under-40 List in 2021. She spent her senior season (2013-14) playing in the interior of LCU's first season in the Heartland Conference, which went 20-0 in conference for a regular season first place finish. She spent three seasons (09/10 - 11/12) at NCAA Div. I Missouri-Kansas City, where she combined to average 4.9 points and 3.9 rebounds in 87 games. The forward also combined for 44 steals, 95 assists and 34 blocks for UMKC (21 blocks as a sophomore). Boyles was a multiple recipient on The Summit League Winter/Spring Academic All-League Team and the Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence as a distinguished scholar. She is a Lubbock native and a product of Coronado High School, where she was rated the No.45 best forward in the nation by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and the No.55 best player in Texas by Premier Basketball Report. The multi-winning All-State recipient was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, as well as the 2009 5A-4A All-South Plains Player of the Year after 17.6 points and 7.9 rebounds a game.

Lady Chaps Surge Past Snakes Late

A 22-2 Second Half Run Carries LCU Past StMU For Fifth Consecutive Win

60

LUBBOCK CHRISTIAN -VS- EASTERN N.M.

FEB. 18 - LUBBOCK, TEXAS

RIP GRIFFIN CENTER

A 22-2 run in the second half propelled Lubbock Christian University to a 60-46 Lone Star Conference victory over St. Mary's Saturday afternoon inside Rip Griffin Center.

St. Mary's was leading 33-30 three minutes into the second half, as Tonia Bilic had a field goal to provide the Rattlers their largest lead of the game. The lead did not last long, as LCU responded with the next four points for a 34-33 LCU lead with 6:10 left in the third quarter. Gabby Elliott regained the lead for StMU, but it would turn out to be the only Rattlers field goal in the final 5:49 of the quarter and for a span of 8:50. Ignited by Martie McCoy's third field goal of the quarter, LCU closed the quarter on a 7-0 run (led 41-35 at quarter's close) and opened the fourth quarter with an 11-0 run. Audrey Robertson had five points during the 18-0 run, including a three-pointer for the first points of the fourth quarter, and with 7:14 remaining the run had LCU leading 52-35.

LCU hit a trio of three-pointers in the fourth quarter. The final one was by Carli Bostwick, which was followed by a pair of free-throws from Grace Foster to complete a 5-0 run and put LCU up 58-40 with 2:38 remaining for LCU's largest lead of the game.

The Lady Chaps surge in the fourth quarter was not aided by hot shooting, as LCU shot 42.9% (6/14) in the quarter. A 3-of-6 shooting performance from outside helped, but it was five offensive rebounds in the frame, which led to a 6-0 scoring advantage in second-chance-points.

LCU took advantage of opportunities in the second half, outscoring StMU 10-2 in points-off-turnovers despite each team having seven turnovers in the half. Lubbock Christian also outscored the Rattlers 9-2 from the free-throw line in the half (LCU was 9-of-11, 81.8%, from the line).

The final score would indicate the contest was one the Lady Chaps controlled, and so would the opening quarter of play, as LCU held the Rattlers to two field goals and received field goals from five different Lady Chaps to take a 14-4 lead into the second quarter. It was not the case, even with Shaylee Stovall putting LCU up 23-12 with a three-pointer 4:30 into the second quarter. StMU closed the second quarter going 6-of-9 from the field and had a 9-0 run in just over a two-minute span to help send the game into the half tied 26-26.

Outscoring LCU 22-12 in the second quarter, the Rattlers would take the lead (29-28) on a three-pointer from Teanna Huggins 90 seconds into the second half. It opened a 7-2 StMU run building up to Bilic's bucket to go up 33-30.

Foster led LCU with 11 points and 11 rebounds to convert her 11th double-double performance of the season. She sniffed a triple-double posting a career-high seven assists in the contest as well. Maci Maddox and Robertson joined Foster in double figures in scoring, as they each contributed 10 points. LCU outscored the Rattlers 18-8 from the free-throw line, with starters (Foster, Maddox, Robertson, Stovall) combining to go 14-of-16 (87.5%) from the line. Maddox and McCoy each had eight points from the field to lead LCU in points from the field.

Gabby Elliott led StMU with a game-high 22 points. She was 8-of-14 from the field and 6-of-7 from the free-throw line. The rest of the Rattlers were a combined 10-of-36 (27.8%) from the field. The loss pushed the Rattlers to 7-19 overall and 3-17 in the LSC.

The victory was LCU's first LSC win in which they shot less than 40% from the field (shot 38.8% from the field to move them to 1-3 in conference games shooting under 40%). LCU's fifth consecutive win improved their record to 20-8 overall and 15-5 in the LSC. The Lady Chaps have topped the Rattlers 13 consecutive times all-time and they extend their all-time series lead to 21-3, which includes a 12-0 all-time mark in Lubbock.

TURNING POINT

Martie McCoy's field goal with 8:58 remaining in the third quarter seemed to jar the Lady Chaps offense into a positive direction, as it was the first of two made field goal attempts (both by McCoy) to give LCU a lead (on each field goal). Prior to the first field goal, LCU had missed eight consecutive field goal attempts. In the ensuing eight attempts, started by McCoy's basket 1:02 into the half, LCU would go 5-of-8 from the field.
